... Boys Ranch 14th Birthday Party, October 2, 1971

The Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch will celebrate its 14th birthday on Saturday, October 2, 1971, and the public is invited to attend.

The all-day program will focus attention on the Ranch's new horse show arena, and on the Clay Mavericks riding club, the organization that donated the arena.

The celebration will begin with a horse show — the first full-scale event of its kind in the new arena — and there will be time out at 12:30 p.m. for the traditional free Suwannee River barbecue.

Ceremonies dedicating the new arena and giving special recognition to the Clay Mavericks are scheduled for 2 p.m.

The Mavericks, a family style organization for men, women and children of all ages, have raised approximately $14,000 for the Boys Ranch through annual benefits centered around horse shows. They also donated all materials and labor to construct the new arena which has been conservatively valued at $6,000.

As usual, Ranch facilities will be open to visitors throughout the day.

The Boys Ranch was founded by the Florida Sheriffs Association on October 2, 1957, as a home for needy and worthy boys. Today it represents an investment of around 2 million dollars, and has an enrollment of 125 boys.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

- 9 a.m. Horse Show Begins
- 12:30 p.m. Free Suwannee River Barbecue
- 2 p.m. Dedication of new Horse Show Arena donated and constructed by the Clay Mavericks, a riding club from Green Cove Springs
- 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. "Open house" to give visitors an opportunity to inspect the Ranch facilities

Ranchers have held some practice sessions in their new $6,000 horse show arena, but the first full-scale horse show will be held on October 2 as a highlight of dedication ceremonies.

THE VIEW FROM THE VILLA —

BARTOW — “No institution in the United States — in fact in the world — has ever started off with such instant success as the Florida Sheriffs Girls Villa.”

This statement came from Harry Weaver, the Executive Director of the Villa, who is normally a sober individual not given to exaggeration.

And he may be right — but right or wrong, one thing is sure: he is caught up in the same wave of enthusiasm that has swept over

Sheriffs, Villa trustees, friends and supporters.

Sheriffs particularly can remember what a long difficult struggle the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch had back in 1957, 1958 and 1959. The founders had about $5,000 in cash, a heavily mortgaged building site, no experience in professional child care, and no assurance that sufficient voluntary contributions would be forthcoming to make their nebulous dream come true.

What a contrast at the Villa, with its beautiful building site leased for 99 years at a cost of only $1; its cash resources of over $100,000, with firm promises of more to come; and its wealth of professional “know how” gathered from 14 years of operating the Boys Ranch.

The view from the Villa is nothing short of inspiring, and Harry Weaver (who is also the well-seasoned Executive Director of the Boys Ranch) can be excused for any and all rash statements.

The lease for the 75-acre Villa site was signed on April 19, 1971; and Weaver announced shortly afterward his number one goal was to start admitting girls on the anniversary date, April 19, 1972.

In the meantime there's much to do.

A master plan will have to be worked out and approved.

Building plans will have to be completed for the first facilities.

Ground breaking ceremonies will have to be held.*

Weaver and Villa Resident Manager Bob Haag will have to hire a Villa Staff.

Girls who apply for admission to the Villa will have to be interviewed, screened and classified.

And the never-ending job of fund raising will have to be accelerated to meet the demands of a fast-moving project — since the Villa, like its brother institution, The Ranch, will be supported entirely by voluntary contributions.

Once the building plans are completed, construction can start almost immediately. The site is within Peace River Park, a public recreation area owned by the City of Bartow, and it is all cleared and landscaped.

One of the first moves by Resident Manager Bob Haag will be to establish a field office at the building site.

But the business office will continue to remain at the Boys Ranch until full administrative facilities have been developed. All inquiries and gifts should be mailed to Boys Ranch, Florida, 32060. (The Boys Ranch now has its own post office.)

GIRLS VILLA GROUND BREAKING CEREMONIES HAVE BEEN SCHEDULED FOR FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 1971.

Girls Villa and Bartow officials inspecting Peace River Park found an ideal building site complete with landscaping, roads and utility services.

FUTURE NEEDS OF BOYS RANCH

Ever since it was founded in 1957 the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch has been steadily growing, both in enrollment and in the quality of its program. It will continue to grow as fast as financial resources permit, and here are some of the important future needs:

- * — New residence cottages at a cost of $100,000 per cottage. Each new cottage will allow us to enroll 14 more boys.
- * — Further expansion of the athletic field to include track and football, with lighting for night games. Estimated cost $35,000.
- * — A remedial education unit (estimated cost

- $60,000) to give special tutoring to boys who come to us with inadequate educational backgrounds.
- * — Additional staff members, particularly in the social service division now that the Boys Ranch has been licensed to place youngsters for adoption.
- * — New streets and improvement of existing streets. Estimated cost $125,000.

ONE ADDRESS SERVES RANCH AND VILLA

On the map, the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch and the Florida Sheriffs Girls Villa are almost 200 miles apart — but temporarily all business for both institutions is being handled at the Boys Ranch, nine miles north of Live Oak. Therefore, all Villa gifts and correspondence should be sent to Boys Ranch, Florida 32060.

By using the form provided below, you can make a donation to either institution or both. The lower half of the form is for donations to either the Ranch or Villa in memory of a loved one or friend. With memorial donations, the next-of-kin is notified of your donation.

FUND RAISING ETHICS

I'm often asked about fund raising ethics, and I have my own version — based partly on experience and partly on information received from other sources.

Basically we must recognize that people have a desire to give, and in order to give cheerfully they must feel comfortable in their giving. This means an absence of pressure. In our Boys Ranch fund raising program we have encouraged this comfortable feeling among our donors, and they have responded with ever-increasing generosity. I am confident the same will be true at the Girls Villa.

Fund raising methods are important, and there are some pressure techniques that are frowned upon by professionals. Circulating coin canisters in public audiences, for instance; or selling recognition tags in the street; sending unorderd merchandise to prospective donors; house-to-house campaigns in which solicitors know little about the organization for which they are raising funds; high pressure telephone solicitation; pressure exerted on business clients, customers or employees; and fund drives in which promoters contract for an unreasonably high commission or percentage of the proceeds.

The Boys Ranch has never been dependent upon these methods, and I hope we never will.

A GUIDE FOR DONORS

Perhaps the following rule-of-thumb will help our readers to evaluate agencies they are asked to support:

1. Know the causes you support. If you are not sure about a fund appeal, check it out with your local Better Business Bureau or Chamber of Commerce.
2. Make certain that the institutions or causes you support are willing to make public detailed reports of their activities, budgets and audited financial statements. (Some states and cities have laws requiring public disclosure of such things, but unscrupulous operators are adept at finding legal loopholes in many laws.)
3. Don't respond to general telephone appeals or to pressure or emotional techniques.
4. Don't lend your own name, or that of an organization to which you belong, to an agency or promoter you have not investigated thoroughly.
5. Don't make contributions for unordered merchandise received through the mails. You have no obligation, legal or otherwise, to pay for such merchandise or to spend any money or effort for its return to the sender.
6. Give. But give wisely. Don't let the unethical actions of some fund raisers discourage you from giving to legitimate causes.

IT'S FUN UNTIL A FIRE STARTS

Serving as a member of the Boys Ranch Fire Department is great fun, but it's also a very serious business. The Ranch is 11 miles away from the nearest city fire department, and it's up to the boys, under staff supervision, to protect buildings and equipment valued at over 2-million dollars. Fortunately there has never been a serious fire in the 14-year history of the Ranch, but the boys participate in periodic training sessions and are prepared to meet any emergency. The pictures on this page by Ed Weigel, Colonial Photography, Live Oak, were taken when Live Oak firemen purposely set fire to an abandoned building to give the boys some realistic training. The $35,000 fire house at the Ranch, which also serves as a vehicle repair shop, was built with funds raised by The Florida State Firemen's Association.

SHORT ON EQUIPMENT

The Boys Ranch Fire Department is long on spirit, but short on essential equipment. The most urgently needed items are:

- 1,200 feet of hose
- More Fire Hydrants
- Repairs or replacements for present fire trucks

Also needed are:

- Gas masks (4)
- Helmet Liners (18)
- Flaps (10)
- Raincoats (18)
- Bunker Coats (18)
- Bunker Pants (10)
- Boots (18 pr.)

Eleven-year-old Dennis Large is only 52 inches tall, but our photographer made him look taller than the new water sphere. Hopefully a few years at the Ranch will make him feel that tall in terms of self-confidence and self-respect.

Yes, it was a live (but non-poisonous) snake. No, Reid Doran didn't actually bite it. Yes, it was turned loose unharmed a few minutes later when the Ranchers turned their attention to something more appetizing—a cookout on the banks of the Suwannee River.

Number One Need: Operating Funds

Asked to name the most urgent needs of the Boys Ranch, Executive Director Harry Weaver answered without hesitation: "Operating funds are number one—we always need operating funds."

"When people give large cash gifts to the Ranch," he added, "they almost always want their money to be used for lasting, tangible items such as a new building, equipment or facilities. They want to provide something they and their friends can see.

"Buildings are important. We can't operate the Ranch without them, but we also can't function without food, clothing, staff salaries and other essential operating costs."

Of course, there are many other urgent needs.

One of the 66-passenger buses used to transport boys has logged over 100,000 miles and is limping along. It must be replaced in the near future, at a cost of about $10,000.

Four Ranchers attended college during the past year, and, with seven young men graduating from high school this year, expenses for higher education will increase sharply.

Funds have been set aside to send Ranchers to college, but these funds are not sufficient to meet future demands. There is now, and will continue to be, an ever-increasing need for scholarship funds.

It was graduation day for Boys Ranch staff members who completed a group child care course at a nearby Vo-Tech School, but it wasn't good-bye for the teacher, Mrs. Jim Strayer (right). She's the wife of the Ranch Resident Director, and her students will be seeing her frequently.

A critically needed $40,000 storm sewer
 A new $100,000 Arts and Crafts Building
 Expansion of the Administration Building
 And a new Boys Ranch post office . . .
 . . . these are current signs of progress
