President's Perspective

A message from
Harry K. Weaver, President of the Florida Sheriffs
Youth Ranches

Now that we're entering a new decade and in our 32nd year of operation, we have begun what is generally known as strategic planning. Very simply, we are looking at where we are, where we've been, and where we are going.

Marion County Sheriff Don Moreland is Chairman and Sarasota County Sheriff Geoffrey Monge is Vice Chairman of our Youth Ranches Strategic Planning Committee. We have various committees set up involving all the staff and some Sheriffs in order that we may take a more in-depth look at the Youth Ranches.

Of course, every organization should do strategic planning, and we have. But, not as intensely as we are engaging in it now.

We are faced with more and more boys and girls needing our services. But, we're also confronted with a lack of financial resources to meet these growing demands.

Much of our planning will focus on the type service our boys and girls will need and how to meet these needs. We know, too, that the demand for our services is not going to subside, nor will the services become less costly.

I'm proud of the fact we have a quality program to meet the needs of at least a portion of Florida's troubled boys and girls as evidenced by the recent reaccreditation by the Council on Accreditation (COA).

As we proceed with our strategic planning, I am asking our donor family to become involved. I'm inviting each of you to share your thoughts, concerns, and suggestions with the strategic planning committee.

There is time to receive your comments before the committee begins to formulate its findings.

Thank you for making all our great work with boys and girls possible.

The mailman made Bill's day!

Many days are ordinary and routine at the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa near Bartow. But, frequently, something happens to create a special day and a happy memory.

One of those special days occurred recently when the morning mail brought Regional Director Bill Biebuyck the following message from a Villa alumnus:

"The most wonderful memories I have are of the days I spent at the Villa. It's been almost six years past now [since I left], but my thoughts of 'home' and

'family' are always with you. There are so many people to thank. Everyone there made such a meaningful difference in my life. I think about all of you and miss you. My love always . . ."

Youth Ranch youngsters organized a pep rally to cheer about the grapefruit crop.

Freeze didn't kill our citrus trees

Our citrus trees survived the Christmas freeze! That's the good news from the Youth Ranch and the Youth Villa.

At the Youth Ranch near Safety Harbor, the grapefruit and orange trees planted in 1988 are already up to fruit-bearing size.

At the Youth Villa near Bartow, a new grove is thriving. It was started early last year with orange, grapefruit, lime and lemon trees donated by Southern Citrus Nursery, Haines City. In November, 160 trees were added from the same source.

Maintenance Supervisor Jerry Furlong said he "iced over" the 210 trees in the Villa grove by spraying them with the Micro-Jet irrigation system donated last year. It was a gift from Tom Bayer, owner of the Micro-Jet Company in Dundee.

A donated Micro-Jet irrigation system saved the citrus trees at the Youth Villa.

"We lost a few lemon and lime trees," said Jerry, "but they can be replaced." Meanwhile, he's planning additional plantings that will give the Villa a grove of about 600 trees.

Up for discussion--pay raises and ponies

YOUTH VILLA — Chairman Cookie Horner conducts a meeting of the Youth Villa Council composed of two representatives from each residence cottage. The council members plan parties and dances and offer suggestions to management. In recent appeals to higher authority, they asked for more horses and a raise in the pay scale for campus jobs.

"Thumbs up" for honor roll students

Villa clowns made their public debut at Bartow's annual Halloween parade. Ahead of their "balloonmobile" was a banner that read: "Make life dramatic--choose comedy, not tragedy."

Winona seemed to live in a shell. She was moody and withdrawn. She went through the motions of participating in activities at the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa, but nothing seemed to capture her interest or spark any enthusiasm--nothing at all--until she was talked into clowning around.

With painted face and a crazy costume, she suddenly became a different person--lively and outgoing--more bounce to the ounce.

"I saw her light up," said Chaplain Connie Centers, the talented lady who brought buffoonery to the Villa in 1989.

"Winona suddenly took a great interest in clowning and changed into an outgoing, enthusiastic person."

Winona is not this teen-ager's real name. We called her that to protect her privacy, but the story of her transformation is a true example of the benefits of clowning.

Most of the youngsters at the Villa have a poor self-image when they arrive, and clowning helps them build self-esteem, according to Chaplain Centers. "It's a lot of fun too," she added.

Villa clowns made their public debut in the 1989 Halloween parade in Bartow. Later they entertained elderly patients at the Bartow Convalescent Center by demonstrating how they applied their clown makeup. Before leaving they painted hearts on the hands of the patients--a gesture that wiped out all generational barriers.

Currently, the clowns are rehearsing skits for the spring-time talent show at the Villa, and having loads of fun in the process. One thing distinctive about the Villa clowns is they never look sad and downcast like some of the famous circus clowns. "Paint happy faces," is their slogan. Tells you something about the benefits they are getting from clowning around.

Chaplain Centers, an ordained Church of God minister with a bachelor of arts degree in pastoral ministry, became a creator of clowns years ago when she was serving as a volunteer with a large junior church group in Middletown, Ohio.

She acquired her theatrical makeup skills from books, and when she started practicing on the young people in her church group, they reacted with enthusiasm. Eventually clowns and puppets were used to dramatize Bible stories.

She became the Villa chaplain in 1987 and has since acquired numerous duties such as counseling, supervising activities, conducting chapel services and directing the music program. Creating clowns is a sideline, but one that sends an important message to Villa youngsters:

"When you feel like frowning--start clowning!"

A new movie titled “Places of the Heart” can now be viewed by interested groups

Sheriffs applauded enthusiastically when “Places of the Heart,” a new Youth Ranches movie, was shown for the first time during the Annual Mid-Winter Conference of the Florida Sheriffs Association, at Panama City Beach.

Prints of the 16mm film can now be viewed by civic organizations, churches, schools and other groups interested in tracking the progress of the Youth Ranches. VCR tapes (½ and ¾-inch) are also available for individual and television screenings. Public service announcements taken from the movie will be provided at no charge to radio and TV stations upon request.

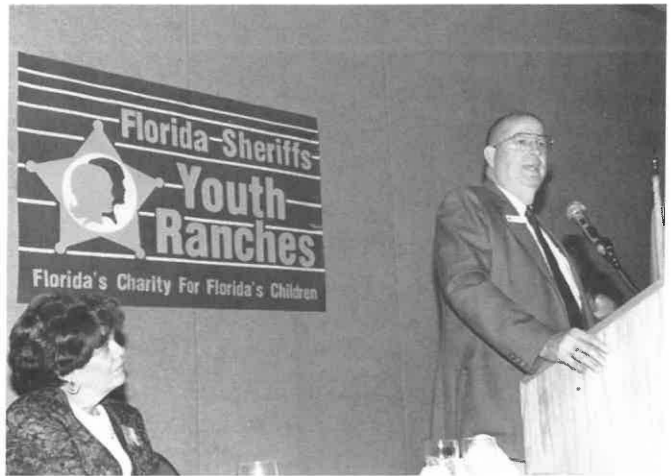

For additional information on how to purchase or borrow movie prints or video tapes, please contact the Vice President Public Relations, Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches, Inc., Boys Ranch, FL 32060. Phone number: (904) 842-5501.

Produced by Tel-Air Interests, Inc., Miami, the 14½-minute movie features boys and girls served by the Youth Ranches and gives them an opportunity to demonstrate the vocational, recreational and interpersonal skills they have acquired.

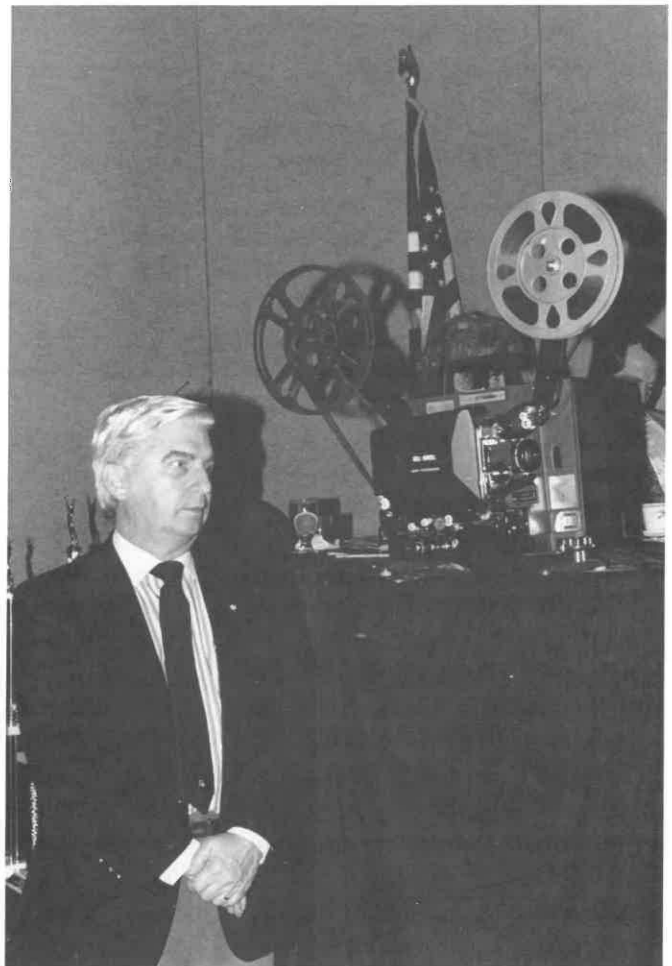

A Youth Villa sequence, for instance, focuses on a girl who learns drafting during her second year of college; and another lass who discovers she was “born to ski” with help and encouragement from her cottage parents. Caruth Camp and Youth Camp youngsters learn how to control their tempers and trust people.

The love and interaction between the boys and girls, their cottage parents, and others who work with them is much in evidence during the film.

While emphasizing nurturing and gently tugging at the viewer’s heart, the movie spotlights each of the five Youth Ranches programs. It shows the natural scenic beauty of the Boys Ranch near Live Oak; the Youth Villa, nestled next to a large lake; the lovely campus of the Youth Ranch in Safety Harbor; Caruth Camp, the wilderness camp near Inglis/Yankeetown; and the Youth Camp near Barberville where hundreds of youngsters enjoy summer camp each year.

Youth Ranches President Harry K. Weaver introduced “Places of the Heart” to Sheriffs and guests during the Annual Mid-Winter Conference of the Florida Sheriffs Association. Youth Ranches officials attending the premiere included Assistant Secretary of State Beverly Burnsed, Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Producer Grant Gravitt was a guest of honor at the movie premiere. He is the President of Tel-Air Interests, Inc., Miami, and has been a supporter of the Youth Ranches for many years in addition to producing many of its promotional films.

Jack and Beverley Mourfield, shown in the front seat, recently donated their very special and valuable 1987 Gazelle roadster to the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. Jack, a noted artist, and Beverley are avid supporters of the Youth Ranches. Since they became a part of our donor family, the Mourfields have been very generous in their donations, giving an almost new airboat, cash, and now the car.

Donnie Michael has earned his wings up there in the "wild blue yonder"

By Susan Lamb, Managing Editor

Success comes easily for some. But, for former Boys Ranch resident Donnie Michael, 33, it took a lot of hard work.

Donnie, a tall, handsome young man with black, curly hair and a winning smile, set high-flying goals for himself while living at the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch. Fourteen years later, when he flew in for the 1989 Boys Ranch Alumni Reunion, he was clearly nearing those goals.

Donnie revealed he had been hired as a full-time co-pilot by Eastern Airlines. Flying for a major airline was a goal Donnie set for himself long ago and it was a goal not easily achieved.

"I was graduated from Eastern's officers school September 26. It was a special graduation because just getting into the program was very, very intensive," Donnie said.

"Eastern has probably the finest training of any airline. Although it's had its up and downs, Eastern is a caring, concerned airline. I was totally impressed with its training and attention to passenger safety," he added.

One day after graduation, Donnie was flying out of Atlanta "to help Eastern get back into the market." In a few short weeks he was working fulltime.

The former Rancher is apparently very comfortable in his new job and looking toward a bright future. "I'm currently flying as a co-pilot. I'm happy with that but someday I'd like to be a captain as Eastern continues to grow," he said.

Becoming a co-pilot for a major airline was not a chance happening for Donnie. For several years, he flew out of Bangor, Maine, and Naples as a commuter pilot for an Eastern shuttle service.

It would be logical to think that when Donnie is at home in Leesburg, he would forget about flying and relax. Far from it. "Home" is a small, private, residential airstrip on Flying Bar Z Ranch owned by Zeb and Louise Teeter. He keeps his own Bonanza plane there and operates Michael's Aircraft, a sales and service business.

For Donnie, the road to success has been a little bumpy, but has always been headed in the right direction. When he came to the Ranch in 1966 with brothers Norman and Danny, he was only 9 years old. But, he soon became eagerly involved in the opportunities that were offered to him. He was intrigued with the mechanics shop; the 3,300-acre cattle, pine tree and hay farm; maintenance work; the arts and crafts shop; and hands-on chores designed to teach youngsters the basics of the work ethic.

With months of on-the-job experience under his belt, the former Rancher is feeling very comfortable in his new job and looking toward a bright future. One of his most recent trips took him to Montreal, Canada, a place he had never visited. "This is more exciting than I ever dreamed," Donnie said.

“You have to cut your own pattern of where to go. The Ranch really helped me in keeping the attitude of shooting for my goals,” he said.

In his spare time, Donnie operates Michael's Aircraft, a sales and service business. (Photos by Bruce Borich, Apopka)

Donnie in 1966 and now.

At the Boys Ranch mechanics shop particularly, Donnie laid the foundation for his future career. Pointing to this background, Donnie is quick to give the Ranch credit for where he is today. “It’s been a constant struggle, but the Ranch is probably the best thing that ever happened to me,” he admits. “You have to cut your own pattern of where to go. The Ranch really helped me in keeping the attitude of shooting for my goals.”

“And I don’t want to forget my mom. The Ranch not only helped me, it helped her also,” Donnie said. “I was the youngest of 10 children and she was a single mother at the time I came to the Ranch. It gave her a chance to get her life together. Now, she’s happily married to a great guy.”

After Donnie was graduated from Suwannee High School in 1975, he attended aviation maintenance school in Tallahassee with financial help from the Ranch. While there, he learned to fly. Later he moved to Leesburg and got into the crop dusting business. After that, he tried several vocations, but always returned to flying.

During the Boys Ranch alumni reunion each year, it’s not uncommon to look skyward and see Donnie approaching the Boys Ranch airstrip. It’s not often Donnie misses a chance to return to the place where he got his life’s foundation and future outlook.

The future was on his mind when he attended the 1989 reunion. “I expect I am getting to the point in life where you reach your goals,” he said. “The truth of the matter is I’ve strayed off the right direction a lot of times. It’s been a whole lot of peaks and valleys, but what you acquire here at the Ranch is the motivation, the strength; so that when things get rough . . .” His voice trailed off.

“When I thought things were so bad that I wasn’t going to make it, with the continuing help of the Ranch, I did,” he said. “I’ve called upon them more than once. Hopefully, I can return some of it to the Ranch some day.”

Opp Store No. 2 is now in business

Early in 1987 the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches opened Opp Store (Opportunity Store) No. 1 at Live Oak as a retail outlet for surplus non-cash gifts such as clothing, tools, sporting goods, furniture, television sets, stereos, antiques, books, housewares, etc.

This bold venture was so successful (it is now grossing more than $200,000 a year) that a second store has been established at Stuart on the Southeast coast, and additional locations are being considered.

Opp Store No. 2 was officially opened for business Dec. 1, 1989. It is located at 1505 North Federal Highway U.S. 1, just 1.5 miles from the north end of Roosevelt Bridge and 1.2 miles south of the Treasure Coast Mall.

Throughout the 32-year history of the Youth Ranches, non-cash gifts have always been an important source of donor support. In the beginning generous donors contributed building materials, farm animals, agricultural supplies and other items that could be put to use immediately. Later, we began to accumulate a surplus, and, when our warehouse began to bulge, we held an auction.

It was so successful we decided to do it again--and again--and the chant of the auctioneer soon became an established tradition. Today we are holding four auctions a year at the Youth Ranches Central Office near Live Oak. These auctions produce income of more than $100,000 annually.

Although the auctions were successful from the beginning, and we were using a large portion of the non-cash gifts in our child-care programs, a surplus continued to accumulate. That's when Youth Ranches officials came up with the idea of operating Opp Stores.

It was a smart decision that benefits a wide range of people including bargain hunters, donors of non-cash gifts, and Youth Ranches boys and girls. It has also added an important new dimension to our fund-raising efforts.

Today, large Youth Ranches tractor-trailer trucks cruise throughout the state collecting non-cash gifts that are delivered to the auction warehouse and the two Opp Stores. Any items that can be used at the Boys Ranch, Youth Villa, Youth Ranch, Fiscal Affairs Vice President Mack Skipper gives a sales pitch to Keri DeLoach, a fifth-generation resident of Palm City.

One of the first opening day customers was Stuart resident Charles Prill whose generous support of the Youth Ranches has earned him a Lifetime Honorary Membership in the Florida Sheriffs Association.

Youth Ranches Board Member Leon LaRoche made the first purchase, a Youth Ranches cap. Clerk Lora Alderman rang up the sale.

Youth Camp, or Caruth Camp are held back, and the balance of merchandise goes on sale.

This system of utilizing and merchandising non-cash gifts is an exercise in frugality and a unique method of "recycling" quality cast-offs for the benefit of neglected, unsupervised and troubled youths. It's an amazing piece of charitable fund raising in the eyes of Youth Ranches' founders who recall the first truckloads of building supplies and cattle that started the flow of non-cash gifts in 1958 when the Boys Ranch was still in its infancy.

Bob Samuelson acquired handyman skills during his many years as maintenance supervisor for a 386-unit apartment complex in Lake Grove, Long Island. Now he's the Opp Store maintenance manager and spends much of his time reconditioning bicycles, power mowers and other items before they go on sale.

At the Youth Camp: Preparations are under way for 450-plus campers

By William A. Frye, Jr.
Summer Camp Director

Well, here it is 1990 and the Florida Sheriffs Youth Camp near Barberville is busy getting ready for the summer camping season. You can feel the excitement in the air as we renovate old buildings, construct new ones, put up tents, and landscape our new entrance.

Helping in these preparations for the arrival of 450-plus campers between June 12 and Aug. 17 have been several former staff members who brought along teen helpers from the youth facilities where they work. These groups put out a tremendous amount of effort to help us get a lot of "spit and polish" work done around the camp. Several Sheriffs' deputies have returned to check out the camp in anticipation of their volunteer duty here this summer. They just can't seem to stay away!

Campsite 10 will be new this year for those boys and girls who need extra attention. We will offer one-on-one counseling to these youngsters to help them deal with their most immediate problems. It will be a challenge because the youngsters will have a chance to "stretch" themselves like they've never done before, and have a great time doing it. Some of the activities will include doing all their own cooking, learning arts and crafts, and getting acquainted with nature through a positive camping experience.

As in years past, the Youth Camp will stress the "Law Officers Are Your Friends" theme designed to teach youngsters that law officers are friendly people doing a job that protects the community, and especially boys and girls.

Our aim is to insure that every camper goes home with a positive memory of their camping experience so they will grow strong both physically and mentally.

The majority of our campers are disadvantaged. Many have been neglected. Some have suffered abuse. All have immense needs. Although we cannot meet all their needs during the 10-day camping sessions, our staff strives to ignite at least one little spark of hope. Perhaps some day that spark will ignite into a glowing flame.

Many of our campers come from homes where there wouldn't be any opportunities for a vacation or any happy memories from summer without the Youth Camp. There's never a charge to the youngsters attending the Youth Camp, but you and I know the costs of putting on such a camp is expensive.

A trip to summer camp at the Youth Camp near Barberville is not all hiking, horseback riding, swimming, archery, boating, and games. There's also time to get acquainted with animals.

Copies of the most recent Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches Annual Report are available for the asking. Address your request to Harry Weaver, President, Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches, Boys Ranch, Florida, 32060.

Telephone Your Gift

To improve our services to you, the Youth Ranches now accepts memorial and honor gifts by telephone. We'll send an acknowledgment card to the bereaved party or person being honored the day we receive your call — before your gift arrives — so that the message of your thoughtfulness will not be delayed. Call (904) 842-5501.

Youth Ranches Speaker's Bureau

Do you need a program for your club, church, or other type organization? We would welcome the opportunity to share the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches story with your group. Wherever you are in Florida, you are not too far away for one of our speakers to accept your invitation, and we have a 14½ minute color/sound film all about the Youth Ranches. Give us a call at (904) 842-5501 or write to the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches, Boys Ranch, Florida, 32060.

NEW ADDRESS?

Americans are on the move, and keeping up with changes of address is a six-aspirin headache. Some of our subscribers (bless them) send us their new addresses. Others let the U.S. Postal Service notify us, and the Postal Service charges us 30 cents for each new address. If you have a new address, please help us to keep our budget in balance by clipping out this form, filling it out and mailing it to:

Honor Roll

Roster of Builders

To protect our donors from receiving unwanted solicitations and junk mail, we have discontinued printing home towns when we print names. This became necessary after we learned that certain organizations of questionable legitimacy were adding our donors to their mailing lists. As long as the home towns are not revealed, this will be extremely difficult to do. We want our donors to know that we have never permitted other organizations to use our lists of supporters, and we will continue to do everything possible to preserve their privacy.

This Honor Roll gives special recognition to generous supporters of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches and its five child care programs: The Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch, Youth Villa, Youth Ranch, Youth Camp, and Caruth Camp. Those who give $100 or more receive "Builder" Certificates, and their names and pictures are printed in The Rancher. Those who give $1,000 or more receive a Lifetime Honorary Membership in the Florida Sheriffs Association, and their names and pictures are printed in The Sheriff's Star, official publication of the Florida Sheriffs Association. A large wall plaque is awarded to each Lifetime Honorary Member, and gold stars are added when that person's total gifts reach $5,000 (one star); $10,000 (two stars); $15,000 (three stars); $20,000 (four stars) and $25,000 (five stars). For those whose gifts total $50,000 or more, there is a Golden Star Award.

Clearwater Sertoma Club Plays Santa To Youth Ranches Each Year

Gary Rhoades, left, and Jack Edward Chayet are just two of the dedicated Clearwater Sertoma Club members who man a booth in Countryside Mall each Christmas to raise money for the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. The club sold tickets on a drawing for a refurbished, Ford Mustang in 1989 which brought in more than $15,000. The club has raised more than $64,000 for the Youth Ranches since it adopted the Youth Ranches as a project in 1985.

Trudy Kuhn receives the WFLA Milt Spencer Award. It was presented by John Laurent, President of the Bartow Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Paul Coury has been actively involved with the Youth Villa for 18 years.

Dr. Sherman Pace with one of his Youth Ranch patients.

Youth Ranches' volunteers receive awards

Three faithful volunteers recently received special honors recognizing their many years of service to the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches.

Dr. Sherman Pace, of Clearwater, and Dr. Paul Coury, of Bartow, received J.C. Penney Golden Rule Awards; and the J.C. Penney Company donated $250 to the Youth Ranches in honor of each award recipient.

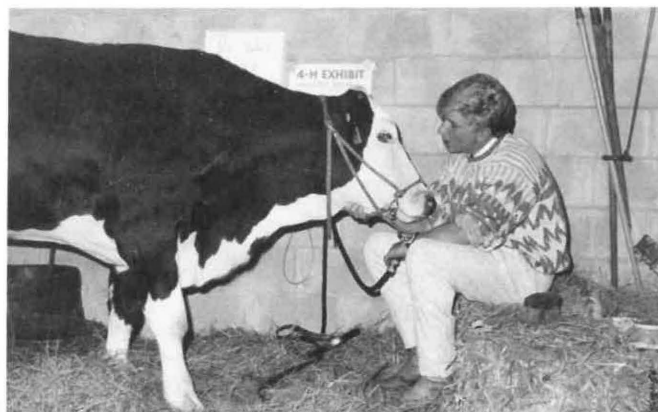

Miss Gertrude "Trudy" Kuhn, owner of Kuhn Plumbing, Bartow, received the coveted Milt Spencer/WFLA-TV Award for "devoting her life to helping others."

Dr. Pace, a current member of the Youth Ranches Governing Board, has been the physician for the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranch in Safety Harbor since the first youngsters were admitted in 1978; and serves on the Youth Ranch Board of Associates.

Dr. Coury has been actively involved with the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa for 18 years, volunteering his time and services without charge, and serving on the Board of Associates. He has been involved with the Youth Villa Golf Classic, a tremendously successful fund raiser, for more than 10 years.

Miss Kuhn was one of the first volunteers to visit the Youth Villa site and has been an active supporter throughout its history. Each year she presents gifts to high school graduates from the Villa. She had served on the Villa Board of Associates and the Youth Ranches Governing Board.

Comes the time of year to pick a steer

BOYS RANCH — It's Spring — that time of the year when agriculture-oriented Ranchers are choosing young steers to raise and groom for next fall's county fair. To spur them on, they have the example set by Steve Brooks, 17, whose steer was a ribbon-winner last year. This photo was taken just before Steve and his steer entered the show ring.

HONOR GIFTS

*A gift may be made to the Youth Ranches in honor of a person and/or a special occasion, such as a birthday, anniversary, etc. If appropriate, and if a mailing address is provided, a letter of acknowledgment will be made to the person being honored. A listing of the donor and the person honored will appear in a future issue of The Rancher magazine and, when address is provided, the person honored will receive a copy of the issue in which his or her name appears. Memorial services were held at the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch Chapel Dec. 17, 1989 for Winfield Scott Chinoweth who died Nov. 14 in Shreveport, Louisiana.

Scott lived at the Boys Ranch from July 5, 1963 until his graduation from Suwannee High School in 1970. During high school he was active in various clubs, played basketball, and served as vice president of the Class of 1970. He was chosen by his peers as "Best All Around Boy" his senior year. After attending North Florida Junior College, he earned a degree in broadcast journalism from the University of Florida.

The Boys Ranch gave him financial aid at the beginning of his college career, but Scott declined assistance during his junior and senior years and earned his way by operating an extensive newspaper delivery business.

While in college Scott spent one summer vacation working at the Ranch. Later, he was hired as the first director for planned giving and gained a niche in Boys Ranch history by being the only former Rancher to fill a full-time administrative position there.

During the memorial service attended by friends, Boys Ranch staff and alumni, Youth Ranches President Harry K. Weaver presented a eulogy and Boys Ranch Alumni Association President Dennis Carpen-

Don't cry Tex:
*These kids are
"hip" about
horsemanship*

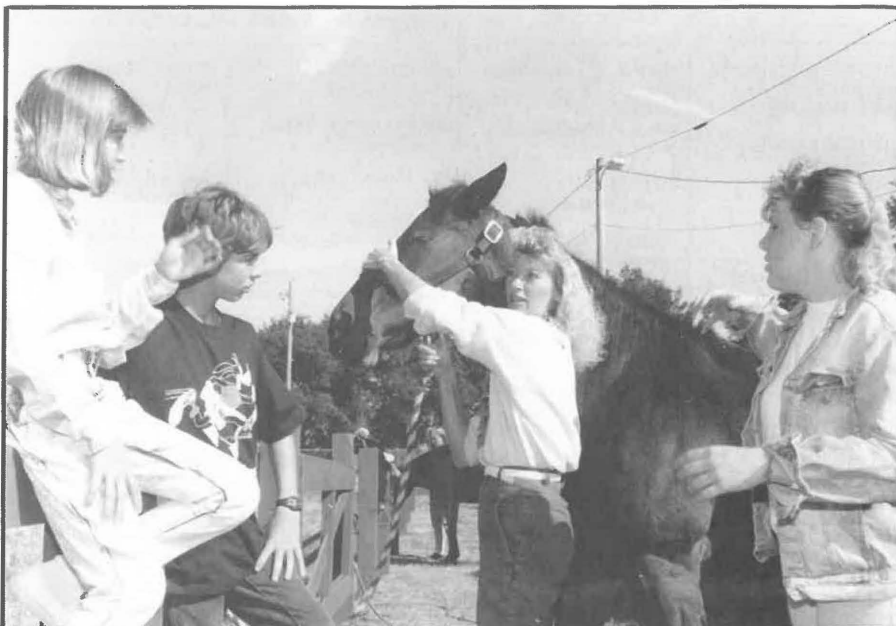

It's enough to make a big ole cowboy cry.

These modern day kids know all about rock stars, foreign cars and the climate on Mars, but most of them don't know the first thing about horses and horseback riding.

It's sad, but fortunately boys and girls living at the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa don't have to face a lifetime of ignorance about pommels, paddocks, palominos and such. Once they muster enough courage to say, "I wanna ride," Recreation Supervisor Tammy Barrons puts them through a course that's guaranteed to make them "hip" about horsemanship in a fortnight or less.

Tammy begins with a lecture on tack. "This is a saddle; this is a bridle; this is a halter; this is a lead line--" and so forth. Then she talks about grooming supplies, styles of riding, equine illnesses and safety rules.

Next come lessons in stable duty and horse grooming--where and how to stand while currying or brushing a horse. These animals can kick, you know.

Tammy Barrons is a patient and thorough teacher. To graduate from her "Academy of Equestrian Excellence" is something like qualifying to become an astronaut.

By this time the students are wondering if they will ever get a chance to saddle up and ride; but Tammy isn't through with her "pre-flight" instruction. She has many other timely tips to impart, such as how to cool a horse down properly after a brisk ride--when to hose down and when to brush.

Finally comes the long-awaited day when the rookie rider "tacks up" and heads across the pasture on a gentle horse. After a few laps around the pasture, the novice wants to go out on the campus. "No way," says Tammy. To receive full riding privileges, it is necessary to pass a written test, a practical skills test and also be certified by a team of staff members.

To graduate from Tammy's "Academy of Equestrian Excellence" is something like qualifying to become an astronaut, but it's worth the effort. Neophytes who earn their spurs can ride in pairs out across the broad and scenic campus, participate in barrel races, or explore the lakeside trail that is currently being developed.

Thorough training, with strong emphasis on safety, pays off. Only one horseback injury--a broken arm--has been sustained in the past five years.
