President's Perspective

A message from
Harry K. Weaver, President of the Florida Sheriffs
Youth Ranches

Charitable gift annuities are a good investment and equally important: help troubled boys and girls too

We are experiencing financially unsettling times. Many of us wonder what tomorrow will bring. We may question whether or not we should give to the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches in times as financially unsettling as today.

The Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches' gift annuity program makes the decision easier.

You can help troubled youngsters while retaining a life income, and receive a tax break too.

As you look for a way to invest your resources and at the same time ponder making a charitable gift, I hope you will consider our charitable gift annuity program.

When one invests in the program, you do two important things. First, you guarantee yourself a fixed and protected income for life. Secondly, you help troubled boys and girls who so desperately need your help.

It is much easier to make a charitable gift when we know that our much needed future income is assured and protected.

I encourage you to study the information on page 19 of this issue of The Rancher and hope you will get in-touch with me about the program. We would be pleased to send to you a disclosure statement or any other information you desire.

We grieve over loss of two dear friends

We are never prepared for death. Such was the case last year when death took two special friends of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches and Caruth Camp.

W. W. "Will" Caruth, Jr., 78, Caruth Camp benefactor and friend, died in Dallas May 4 after a long illness.

Everett Nolan Lindstrom, 50, Caruth Camp Director of Youth Services, lost his life in a tragic one-car accident Oct. 18 as he and wife Helen returned to camp from Gainesville.

The deaths saddened friends in Levy County, Caruth Camp, and the Youth Ranches staff across Florida. Because both men were a special part of Caruth Camp, our staff and campers were especially grieved.

Mr. Caruth became interested in the Youth Ranches many years ago. He graciously made several donations but when he decided to dispose of property on U.S. 19 in Levy County, typically he thought of the Youth Ranches. Mr. Caruth thought the property's wilderness environment would be ideal for certain troubled youngsters. The Youth Ranches agreed and Caruth Camp proudly bears his name.

Mr. Caruth was an environmentalist. "He loved trees, the outdoors, hunting and fishing, and saw Caruth Camp as a natural setting for boys and girls with problems," said Youth Ranches President

W. W. "Will" Caruth, Jr.

Harry K. Weaver. Mr. Caruth planted many trees on his properties and when he made the property available to the Youth Ranches, he specified that no tree over seven inches in diameter could ever be cut without permission, Mr. Weaver remembered.

Although he lived in Dallas, Mr. Caruth often visited Florida and particularly loved to visit the camp. "Mr. Caruth believed in joint ventures between the community and projects such as Caruth Camp," Mr. Weaver said. "He believed the community should rally around this venture and it did."

His friendship, his leadership, and his loyalty to the Youth Ranches will be greatly missed. Mr. Caruth is survived by his wife Mabel, and four children.

In an open-air, Celebration of Life service at Caruth Camp, Youth Ranches President Harry K. Weaver spoke of Mr. Lindstrom's dedication to helping youngsters, his love of the environment and nature, and his love of God.

"He saw the beauty of our environment as vividly as anybody. He felt that through this experience, boys and girls could learn about themselves and learn respect for others," Mr. Weaver told the large gathering of friends. "One of the nice things about Everett was you could learn about nature: the grass, sticks, and stones. He believed there is an education in building a fire, in dialogue around a campfire," Mr. Weaver said. "He was the Rock of Gibraltar: the core of Caruth (Camp)."

"He didn't practice religion; he lived it, he shared it, he worked at it. He just would not let these boys give up on themselves," Citrus County Deputy/Deputy Officer Friendly and friend Dan White commented after the service.

Family and friends recalled how the 30-year veteran of child care work wrote his life story in 1957, how he loved his family and church, and how he demonstrated his desire to help others. His son, Nathan Fjord Lindstrom, remembered how his dad always had time for him and often made pine needle baskets. Mr. Lindstrom is also survived by his wife Helen Slaubaugh Lindstrom.

Those spirited Jones twins are faced with some adult decisions

Those Jones twins, Nina and Christina.

By Susan Lamb, Managing Editor

SAFETY HARBOR — They've made a name for themselves at the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranch, those Jones twins, and the past year has been filled with many special moments including their 18th birthday on Christmas Day.

However, the biggest day yet for Christina and Nina will be their upcoming graduation at Countryside High School. There will be all the usual activities, including a party at the Youth Ranch.

With these festivities come moments of uncertainty about crossing the threshold into adult life. Each twin must make some very adult decisions about college, living arrangements, and future.

"When I leave, I have this awful feeling I'll follow the same Youth Ranch schedule every day for a long while," Christina laughed. "But, with the Ranch's help, I'm sure I'll be okay."

Christina hopes to attend St. Petersburg Junior College. "I'm pretty sure I'm going to do something in nursing," she said with that intense look of determination she's famous for at the Youth Ranch.

"I was going into the military, but with the Gulf situation, I've changed my mind," said Christina, who may weigh 100 pounds soaking wet. She said she is investigating various sources of financial aid, and hopes she's in line for a scholarship from Kash n' Karry, her present part-time employer.

Making plans for their future is serious business, but the twins are ready. During their five years at the Youth Ranch, they've participated in many decision-making processes in their own lives and learned you must live with your choices. With the advent of their 18th birthday, they decided to room together. This was one decision made together and with great determination. "As sisters, we used to fight a lot, but we won't do that now because we're older and more mature," Christina said as her sister nodded in agreement. If it doesn't work out, the twins believe the effort is at least worth a try.

Meanwhile, there's work to be done. Christina attends school in the morning and then pulls the afternoon shift at Kash n' Karry a block from the Youth Ranch. She's a dedicated employee and has earned the honor of holding a job continuously longer than any other Youth Ranch youngster. She has been a member of the ROTC for the past four years, and has also been involved in the Diversified Education Club of America (DECA) for vocational students, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and the drill team. One of her favorite leisure-time activities is free-hand drawing.

"Christina is the artist," Nina blurted out. "Yes, but I have to be really motivated to draw those cartoon characters," Christina answered.

Nina attends school full time and her schedule includes two college courses. She maintains a high grade point average, is consistently on the A & B honor roll and holds down a part-time job at McDonalds! She once held two part-time jobs at one time! She sang with the award-winning Countryside High School Chorus for two years. Other activities include the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA), and Future Homemakers of America (FHA).

"I'm very creative, too. I like to write poems, and I made my own Christmas cards last year," she elaborated as she and her sister lounged in their brightly decorated bedroom.

Nina wants to attend St. Petersburg Junior College or Clearwater Christian College and live at the Youth Ranch. "I may major in elementary education, but I'm not sure what area yet," Nina said, looking the interviewer straight in the eyes. "I'd like to major in music education, but I don't have any musical training except voice."

When the girls came to the Youth Ranch in 1986, they had lived in foster homes since they were babies. Nina said she had been in and out of foster homes for 12 years before moving to the Youth Ranch. These two lively, spirited teenagers were clearly a challenge and had discovered moving from one home to another was easier than facing their problems.

Nina said when she arrived at the Youth Ranch, major difficulties loomed ahead. Heart surgery as a young child, coupled with the trauma of a troubled childhood had left its mark. "THEY made ME do the work program, and I didn't like it. I thought they were being mean," she laughed. "Later, I liked it better as I got to know the cottage parents. Now, I think they do a lot for you and it's better than home for me. I'm thankful for Mr. Tom (Cook, a relief cottage parent), Miss Betty (Elliott), Mr. Swiger (Unit Director), Mr. Stones (Regional Director), and Mrs. Mae Batt (Resident Director's secretary), and everyone who has helped me."

Christina admits she too was difficult at first. "When I first came I was 13, I had been in 14 foster homes, and I was manipulative. I don't think I would have ever graduated from high school if I hadn't moved here."

That sentiment is echoed by Joe Ballard, Youth Ranch Resident Director who has worked closely with the twins for years. "We've worked miracles with these young ladies. I don't believe they would have ever graduated from high school if they hadn't been here," Ballard said. "But, they've always kept trying, and we have too. We think it's been worth it."

After so much upheaval in their lives, one would expect the girls to feel displaced, but they think of the Youth Ranch as home. "In this cottage, it feels like home," Christina said. "It's easy to talk about leaving, but when I leave here, I'm probably going to cry like never before. When I think of those people who have influenced my life most, they are all here at the Youth Ranch: Mr. Jack (Elliott) and Miss Betty (Elliott), my cottage parents; and Mr. Ballard," Christina said, exchanging glances with her sister who nodded in agreement.

"The Youth Ranch is harder than a foster home," Nina chimed in. "In a foster home, you wouldn't be as responsible for your actions, but I'm used to this," Nina added. "I don't know any other way of life."

Our Jones twins are pretty as newborn calves, as perky as spring kittens, and smart as can be. We're bettin' they will continue to make the Youth Ranches proud as they make their way in the world.

Raymonds retire after 17 years as Boys Ranch cottage parents

By Susan Lamb, Managing Editor

Disney World is a magical place. Chris and Flo Raymond won't dispute that. On New Year's Eve, 1973, they were happily retired at an early age, financially secure, with no children of their own, and having the time of their lives visiting the Magic Kingdom in Orlando.

"That's when we turned on the television set in our hotel room and saw an advertisement about the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches and its work with dependent, neglected, or troubled youngsters," Mr. Raymond remembers. That ad changed their lives so dramatically they still speak of it with awe.

The Raymonds now claim dozens of boys as their own, proudly speak of "grandchildren," many whose pictures they treasure, and hold the Youth Ranches record of 17 years as cottage parents.

"As I look back over 17 years, I don't think I would change a single thing."

Leaving was not easy. It took nearly a year to make a decision about retiring a second time. That's in direct contrast to their decision to become cottage parents. The day after seeing the commercial, they contacted the Youth Ranches.

"I come from a family of 10, Flo is an only child," Mr. Raymond said. "I retired with Superfinest super markets as a store manager in Waterbury, Connecticut. Flo had retired with Traveler's Insurance as a secretary. We wanted to retire to Florida to have more time together," he added. When the commercial struck a special place in their hearts, they felt the call to help boys and girls. Within a couple of days, the Raymonds were settling in at the Boys Ranch for a trial run as cottage parents.

It didn't take long to get cold feet. "The next afternoon, I told Flo, 'let's get out of here,'" Mr. Raymond said, laughing as he recalled that day. "We talked about it all the way home. We had never been around that many youngsters at one time," Mr. Raymond said. "I have 67 nieces and nephews who would spend summers with us, but never all at one time!" Within a couple of days, the decision was made: the Raymonds would become "Mom" and "Pop" to more than a dozen dependent, neglected, or troubled boys.

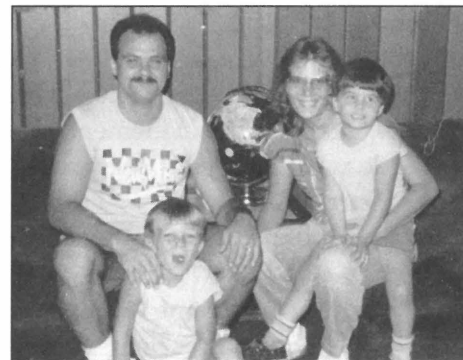

When the Raymonds arrived at the Boys Ranch that first day, they felt right at home. "First thing when we arrived, a young lady at the front desk stood up, greeted us with a smile, and welcomed us," Mr. Raymond said. "We were really impressed. It felt just like family then, and it still does."

Bobby Usher Avery lived with the Raymonds for four years in their first attempt at being parents to more than a dozen boys in Lewis Cottage. Bobby later left the Boys Ranch, was adopted, and grew up to become a correctional officer. He still returns to visit the Raymonds.

Little boys grow up, get married, have kids, and return home to show off their families. Wayne Balzarano is a good example of the boys the Raymonds call "their boys." Wayne and wife Cheryl, sons Josh, center, and Eric recently paid them a visit. The Raymonds estimate they have around "60 to 70 grandkids now," from the hundreds of boys they helped during their 17 years as cottage parents.

"We only wanted to be relief, you know, filling in for someone when they were off," Mr. Raymond chuckled. But, training was provided and they soon became permanent cottage parents in Lewis Cottage.

"When Lewis (cottage) became available, the kids all came over with Rancher Bobby Usher, their spokesman. Bobby told us their cottage parents were leaving and they had voted to ask for us!" Mr. Raymond said. The Raymonds accepted when the Boys Ranch administration okayed the vote. "Nobody had ever called me "Pop" before, and that sort of made me feel good. This was family."

Later, they were asked to become the first cottage parents in Jellison Cottage, where they remained until their retirement. Jellison was the first of the newer cottages, with a new design, fewer youngsters, but more responsibility for Ranchers.

The years passed quickly, said Mrs. Raymond, the quiet one in the family. And oh, the memories! Many are packed away in boxes: drawings, colored pictures, banners, crafts, woodwork from the Boys Ranch Arts and Crafts Center "their" boys made as treasured gifts. Several stand out as exceptional, Mr. Raymond said. "Once when we went on three weeks vacation, we returned and the boys met us at the door and said, 'No, Mom and Pop, you can't come in yet.' When they let us in, they wouldn't let us look for a few minutes. Then, there it was. A huge paper welcome banner that had been painstakingly drawn and colored," Mr. Raymond said, as his wife smiled in agreement. "This thing was beautiful," he said. A quick search of a closet yielded the masterpiece, every inch of the long banner masterfully colored. "It must have taken them days to color this," Mr. Raymond said with pride.

Mrs. Raymond is particularly proud of a small trophy, no more than six inches tall. On it is a powerful message that would bring tears to the eyes of any mother: "To the greatest mom in the world. I hope you will always love me."

"That came from one of our boys," she recalled. "At first he would say, 'I'll be glad when you leave,' or that we didn't love him," said Mr. Raymond, proudly producing a picture of the lad. "I told him we were here to stay when we first arrived." And stay they did. The young man is now very close to the Raymonds.

Being cottage parents was not easy, the Raymonds said. It can be trying under the best of circumstances, even for those with child-raising experience. "As I look back over 17 years, I don't think I would change a single thing," Mr. Raymond reflected. "You tend to forget the hard times. But, there were always more good times."

Thank goodness the war is over

Yellow ribbons seem to be everywhere these days, and we have our share.

Our alumni, staff, and boys and girls prayed for months for the military personnel in the Persian Gulf, and the safe return of the Youth Ranches staff and alumni serving there. Those prayers were heard and our guys will soon be home. Boys Ranch alumni known to be in the Mideast are Earl Cole (who was featured with his bride on the front of the Fall 1990 issue of The Rancher), Bill Phillips, Gary Ponds, James "Greg" Barnes, and Tony Riggins.

Boys Ranch Business Manager Bruce Goff, and Boys Ranch Night Counselor Joe LaBlanc were called to duty with their National Guard units last fall. Both are stationed in the Middle East.

BOYS RANCH — The flag pole is all decked out with a huge yellow ribbon to signify best wishes for the safe return of alumni and staff in the Mideast. These two Ranchers and Boys Ranch Chaplain Warren Thompson are reminded of our service people's absence as the American flag is lowered each evening.

Auctions are fund-and-friend-raisers

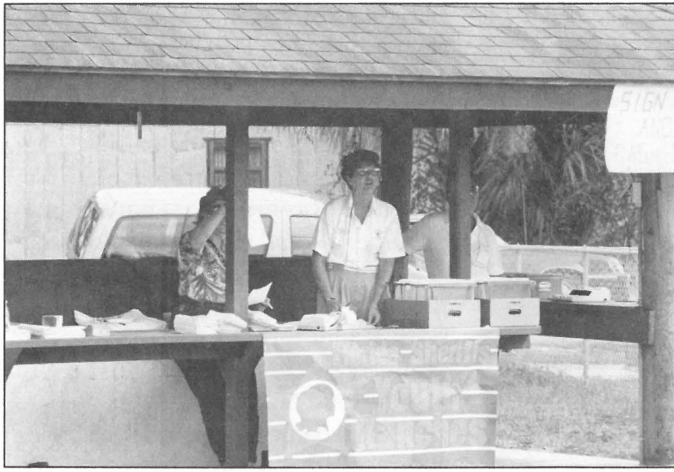

Auctions are one of the largest Youth Ranches fund raisers and "friend raisers." Many of our longtime friends wouldn't think of missing an auction, and we are constantly making new friends when folks attend auctions at our Central Office warehouse at the Boys Ranch. The auctions are held each February, May, August, and November.

There's something for everyone, including antiques, jewelry, furniture, tools, household appliances, glassware, outdoor furniture, horses, and sometimes even chickens or ducks.

Our November auction raised a total of $43,292.10 while our February auction raised $32,394.57. This would not have been possible without our donor family, the folks who so generously donate the non-cash items that are auctioned.

When you share with us, we use whatever we can within our five programs for dependent, neglected, or troubled youngsters. When we have surplus items, they are sold through our Opportunity Stores in Live Oak and Stuart, or at our auctions to raise cash for operating funds.

Thank you, dear friends, for all you do to help our deserving boys and girls. Our next auction at Central Office is May 4.

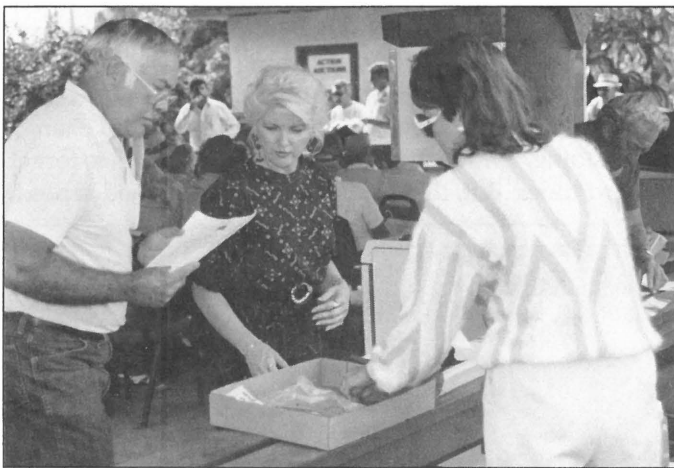

Auction goers stopped here first to sign up and get a list of sale items from Youth Ranches Regional Director Alison Evans, center.

Preparations began early and there were items to interest everyone.

First Stuart auction is big success

The auction couldn't have taken place without the valuable assistance of many volunteers such as Martin County Sheriff James Holt's secretary, Beverly Auer, center. Youth Ranches' Live Oak Opp Store Manager Loyd Hall, is at left.

Auctioneer Bob Pacelli, with the mike, did a great job of getting the highest dollar for every item. Boy Scout Troop #833, led by Scoutmaster Paul Piatti, volunteered to park cars, set up chairs, and help during the auction as this Scout, center, did. Youth Ranches Central Office Director of Non-Cash John Sellgren is at right.

The chant of the auctioneer has been an important part of fund raising for the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches for many years as evidenced by the successful auctions held quarterly at the Boys Ranch. A new era was ushered in Jan. 19 when an additional auction sponsored by Moose Lodge #1282 was held in Stuart for the benefit of the Youth Ranches.

More than 100 old and new friends of the Youth Ranches signed up to bid enthusiastically on a grandfather clock, couches, exercise bikes, tables, lamps, a motorcycle, household appliances, a steam trunk, antiques, and a variety of other items. Some items were donated by the Moose Lodge. Some new items and gift certificates were donated by local merchants.

A total of $4,197.49 was raised to help dependent, neglected, or troubled boys and girls. Additional funds were raised by the Women of the Moose who sold hot dogs and soft drinks during the auction.

Volunteers were everywhere, helping in many capacities. "The Youth Ranches Volunteers," a group of senior citizens from Martin County who meet regularly to visit Youth Ranches programs and learn more about our work and needs, helped with the auction from early morning until late afternoon. Moose Governor Gus McCormick and Past Governor William Beauregard were involved in planning the event, as well as helping during the auction. Boy Scout Troop #833 was out in force, along with many other wonderful folks who wanted to help our boys and girls.

Hopes are running high that this auction will lead to an annual event. Youth Ranches Regional Director Alison Evans said many bidders asked when the next auction will be and she hopes she'll have an answer soon. Meanwhile, Moose Lodge 1282 and our many volunteers can rest assured they have laid the essential groundwork.

A Picture Is Worth a Thousand Words

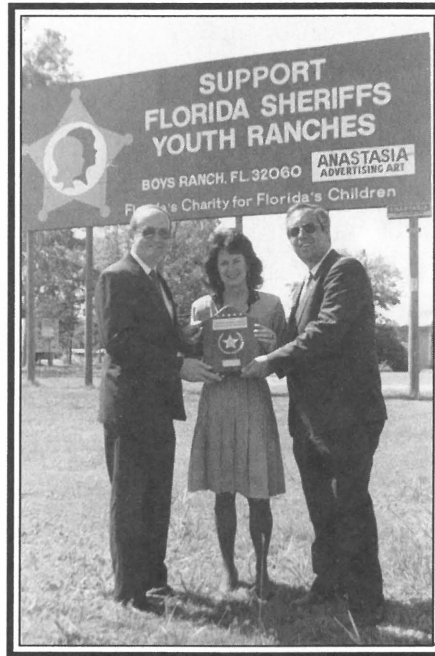

By Bill Bass, Associate Publisher

"A picture is worth a thousand words" . . . a famous saying that readily applies to the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches long-term relationship with the Florida Outdoor Advertising Association (FOAA) and its 21-member companies throughout the state. Since their commitment to the Youth Ranches in 1986, companies that are members of FOAA have placed thousands of paper billboards and many painted billboards statewide at no charge to the Youth Ranches.

Painted billboards in various sizes are sold to sponsors at reduced prices with a minimum guarantee of six months exposure time. It means millions of people see the Youth Ranches name and trademark daily as they travel the streets and highways of Florida.

Mike Howard, general manager of Lamar Outdoor Advertising in Tallahassee, is a strong supporter of the Youth Ranches. Since Lamar's corporate office in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, leaves the placement of public service advertising in each area up to its general manager, Mr. Howard places paper and painted billboards for the Youth Ranches on a regular basis simply because he loves children, and because he rates the Youth Ranches as one of the top five charities served by his office.

Advertising) in Orlando, gives the Youth Ranches high marks. His company is very concerned about youth and the possible problems they face with drugs and alcohol. POA is also concerned about a growing lack of interest in education nationwide. Ray Moyers, general manager for POA in Ocala, says POA appreciates what the Youth Ranches is doing to help dependent, neglected, or troubled youth, and wants to be recognized as an active supporter.

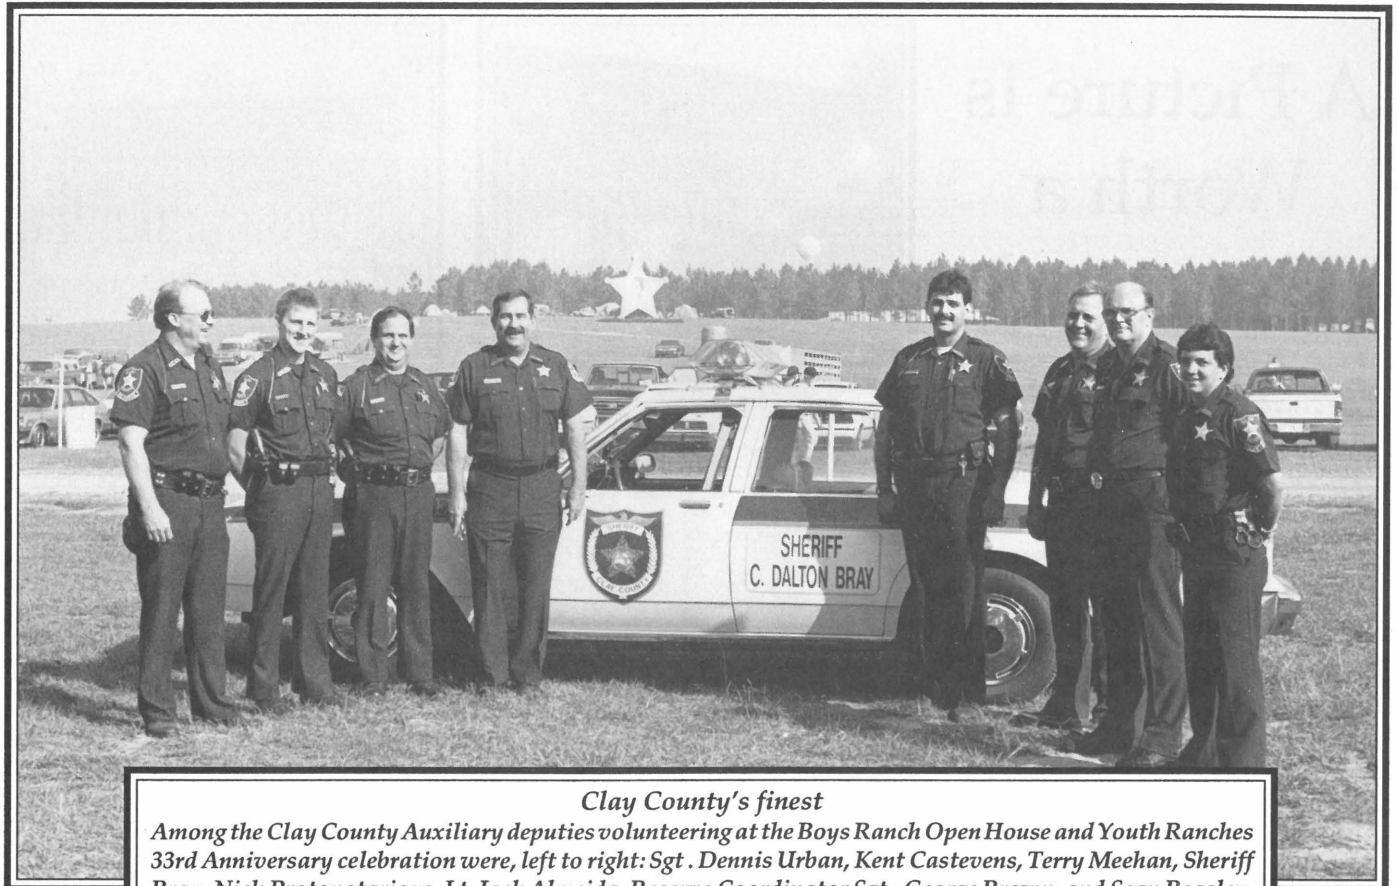

Sheriff Neil Perry of St. Johns County, chairman of the Youth Ranches Board, summed it up recently: "There is no question that Youth Ranches' billboards do an outstanding job because they provide that first impact on someone to ask, 'What is the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches?' That gives us the chance to provide the necessary information they need to understand what we do to help boys and girls as well as their families."

Clay County's finest

Sheriff's Auxiliary gives Boys Ranch 8,000 hours, 739 deputies in 23 years

By Susan Lamb, Managing Editor

In October when members of the Clay County Sheriff's Auxiliary made their annual trek to the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch to assist with the Youth Ranches 33rd Anniversary celebration, they brought along some interesting information.

"We got to checking the records, and discovered that since our department began providing this service 23 years ago, we've put in more than 8,000 hours and provided over 739 deputies," Clay County Sheriffs Sgt. George Brown said, a hint of pride in his voice. That's some record even by Youth Ranches standards of volunteerism!

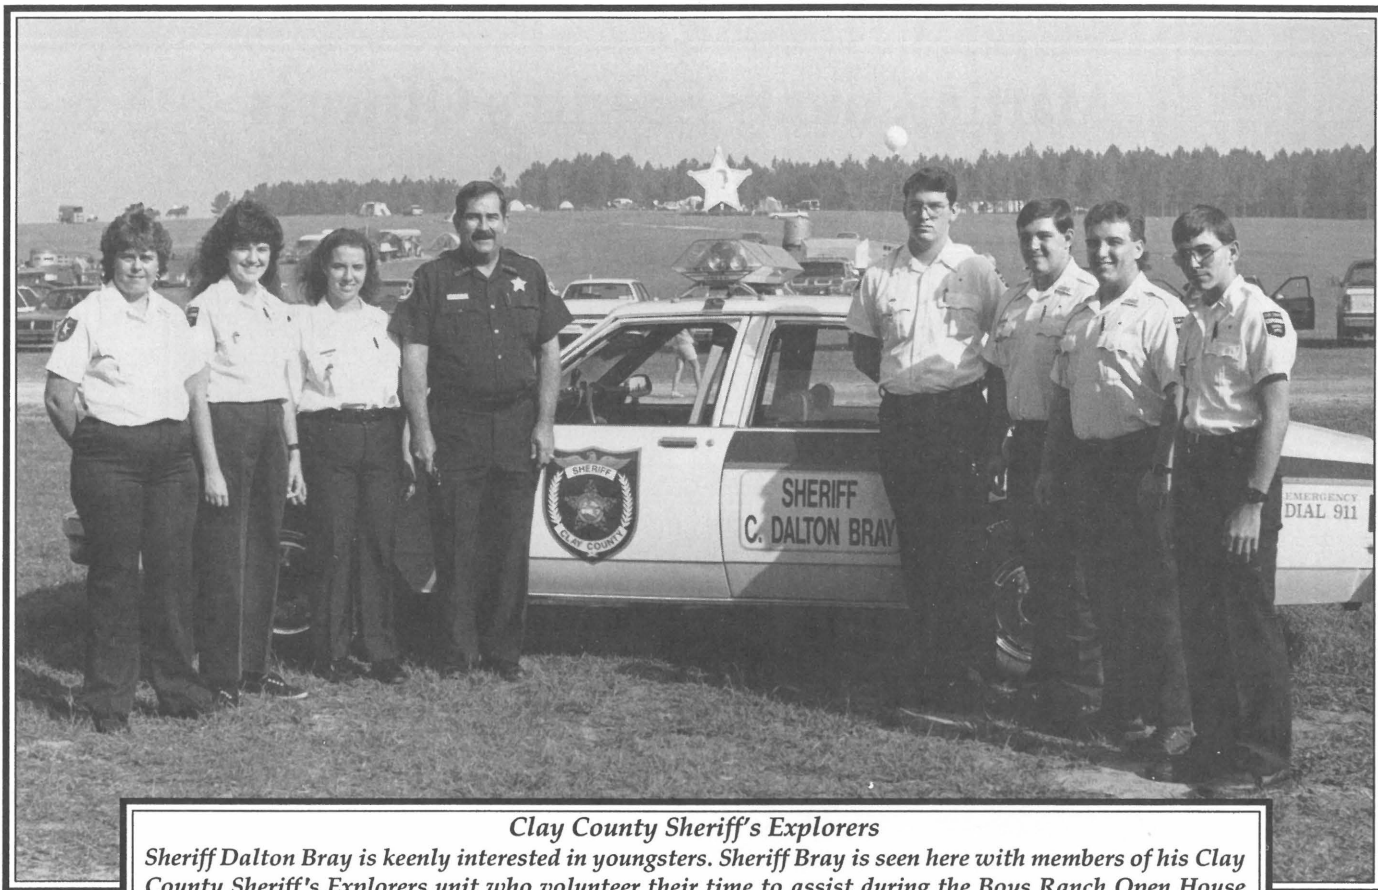

After 23 years, it has become a tradition. "When Sheriff Dalton Bray took office in 1989, he wanted to continue this relationship," Sgt. Brown noted.

Sheriff Bray made that very clear when he visited the Ranch during the 1990 celebration. "I absolutely will continue sending auxiliary deputies to the Boys Ranch each year," he said. "I'm very big on youth activities. This is right in line with our mission to support our youth. They are our future."

Sheriff Bray was no stranger to the Boys Ranch when he took office. During his years as a Florida Department of Law Enforcement officer, he worked in and around Suwannee County. He knew the Youth Ranches reputation for success in child care. "How can you not have success when you have someone like [Youth Ranches President] Harry Weaver at the helm?" Bray asked. He said he is especially grateful to former Sheriff Jennings Murrhee for starting the volunteer program.

During the Youth Ranches 33rd anniversary celebration in October 1990, it was business as usual for the auxiliary. Deputies volunteered for eight-hour shifts on foot, horseback, or sturdy ATV's patrolling the huge area around the Clay Mavericks Riding Arena where hundreds of visitors spent the weekend in motor homes, tents, or the old fashioned way, using bedrolls under a clear autumn sky. Clay County Sheriff's Explorers, the teenager volunteer group, also helped.

It is customary for some auxiliary deputies to spend the entire weekend while others make the two-hour

Sheriff Dalton Bray is keenly interested in youngsters. drive to the Boys Ranch, work a shift, then return to Clay County. And, it's all volunteer duty.

When Clay Mavericks offered to build a riding arena at the Boys Ranch, volunteer deputies were there.

"Clay Mavericks wanted to do something. There was nothing out there and they came over, cleared the land, and brought in everything," said Mr. Weaver. "It just has a Clay County flavor to it: the buildings, the arena, the horse show, the deputies."

Capt. Hal Blalock was among the first officers to volunteer at the Boys Ranch. He led a mounted patrol from 1967 through 1981. Until the arena project was completed and the first horse show was held during open house in 1971, the anniversary celebration had been more of a dress-up affair and only lasted one day. There were dedications, tours of the campus, and of course, the famous barbecue on the banks of the Suwannee that drew thousands. Clay County Auxiliary was always there to help with the traffic and assist with parking. Sgt. Brown had the group in 1981-82. Lt. Robert Davis took over until Sgt. Brown returned in 1989.

Clay Mavericks members now set aside the first full weekend in October to visit the Boys Ranch to help celebrate the Youth Ranches anniversary. The club organizes and oversees the horse show with help from the Youth Ranches, and Clay County deputies show up just as they do back home for area horse shows.

Although other counties help with crowd control (notably St. Johns County), Clay County was the first and holds the record of 23 years.

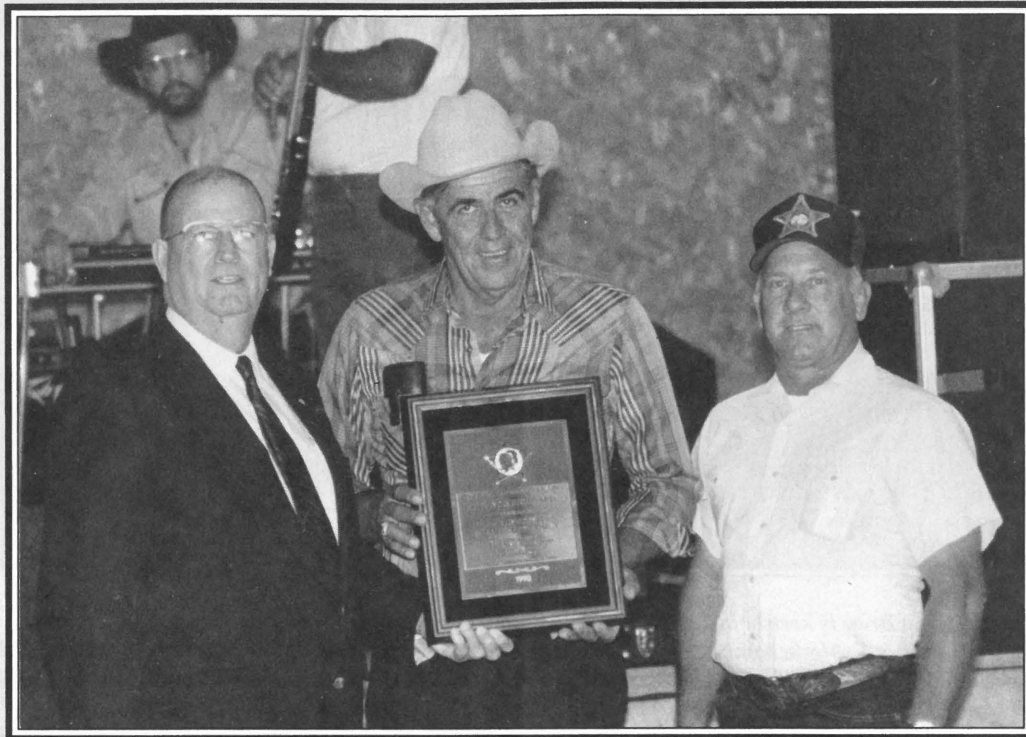

The bond between the Clay County Sheriff's Office and the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches has produced a long-term friendship with mutual respect on both sides. Open house has become a major event for the Youth Ranches because of the dedication and hard work of many people, especially those from Clay County. It simply would not be the fun, family oriented, carefree weekend it is without the assistance provided by the auxiliary.

The deputies will be the first to say their jobs are more fun than work. Who wouldn't like spending a weekend on a sprawling, 3,300-acre working ranch on the banks of the Suwannee River, talking with old friends, making new ones, smelling the sweet smell of bacon wafting through the pines each morning? Many of those attending are families from Clay or surrounding counties who know the deputies from back home or from seeing them at the Boys Ranch each year.

It's a fun time, but, if a law enforcement officer is needed, we know Clay County Sheriff's Auxiliary will be on the job.

Thanks, guys and gals! We couldn't do it without you.

Martin County Sheriff's Office is first to receive Grand Star award

First Grand Star goes to Martin County

The presentation was made by Youth Ranches President Harry K. Weaver, left, in recognition of contributions to the Youth Ranches totaling $100,000. Martin County Sheriff's Lt. Larry Cashwell, who oversees the Martin County Sheriff's Barbecue, also participated in the presentation. (Photo by Sheriff's Detective Paul T. Reeder.)

STUART — Sheriffin' is a full-time job for Martin County Sheriff James Holt, but he always finds time to raise funds for the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. Because of that dedication, Martin County Sheriff's Office became the first in the state to receive the Golden Star award in 1986. (This award is presented for contributions of $50,000 or more.)

Now, the Martin County Sheriff's Office has done it again. Sheriff Holt and his helpers raised so much money for the Youth Ranches, we had to come up with a new award. We scratched our heads a bit, then came up with the Grand Star award for contributions of $100,000 or more!

Youth Ranches President Harry K. Weaver made the presentation Dec. 8, during the 14th Annual Martin County Barbecue. Sheriff Holt accepted the beautiful plaque on behalf of his staff.

All proceeds from the annual barbecue go to the Youth Ranches to help troubled boy and girls. Deputies, correctional officers, investigators, wives, husbands, children, and other friends of the Youth Ranches all pitch in to make the event a huge success.

Martin County began helping dependent, neglected, or troubled boys and girls in 1975 when the Sheriff and his deputies put on a fish fry that became an annual event and evolved into the barbecue. The first event raised more than $9,000, a tribute to the volunteers who staged it.

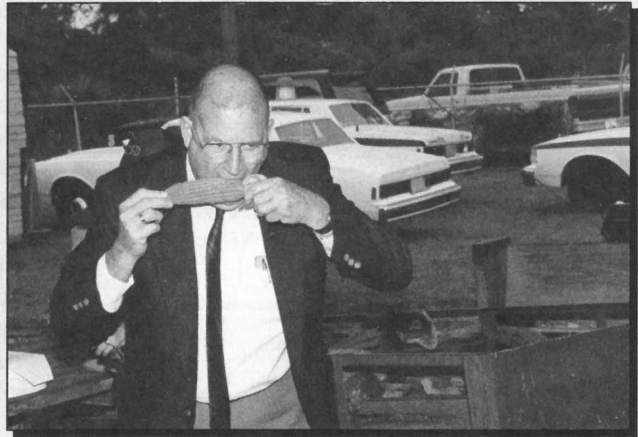

In 1990, Martin County Sheriff's Office also raised $12,457.58 with a "Lockdown" to open the new county jail. "Inmates," some who volunteered and others who were "volunteered," paid to spend the night in the new jail during its inaugural. Thus, the new jail was thoroughly tested before real inmates were admitted, and all proceeds went to the Youth Ranches.

We salute the Martin County Sheriff's Office, its employees, and volunteers who have made such a "grand" contribution to the lives of our boys and girls.

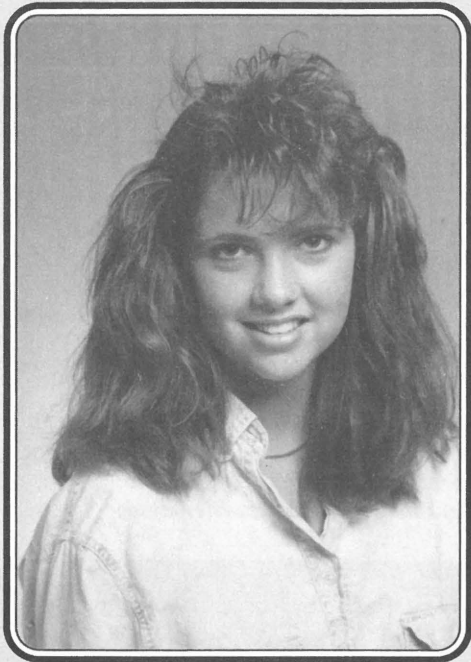

Volunteers make it successful

STUART — Over the years volunteers have served tons of barbecued chicken, corn-on-the-cob, and sundry fixin's to make the annual Martin County Sheriff's Office Barbecue one of the most successful fund-raising ventures in the history of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. These photos by Martin County Sheriff's Detective Paul T. Reeder show some of the dedicated folks who made the 1990 event a huge success. Youth Ranches President Harry K. Weaver participated as the official corn-on-the-cob tester. "Just right," he ruled.

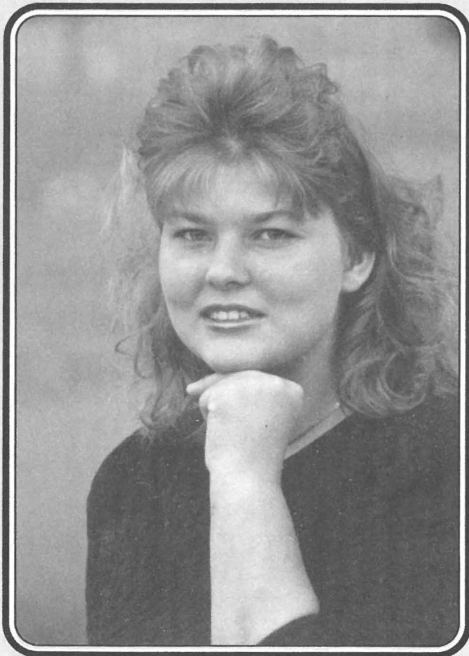

The Southern Justice band, composed of law enforcement officers, played a smooth blend of country and western music during the barbecue.

Youth Villa girls learn to accept responsibility and be trustworthy

LINDA

Linda Riegel and Rebecca Lowe can face the future with greater confidence after experiencing "Transitional Living" at the Youth Villa.

BECKY

BARTOW — For Linda Riegel, 1990 was a banner year. In fact, it was the biggest year thus far as she graduated to the Transitional Living Unit at the Youth Villa, obtained her GED, got a new job, enrolled in junior college, and got a new car. Not bad for an 18-year-old.

Linda's life appears to be on the right track, although it's a pretty fast track right now with all her responsibilities. This energetic young lady feels good about herself and her prospects for a secure future. Meanwhile, she's working hard to insure that her future will be everything she wants. Linda began classes at Polk Community College (PCC) in January. She also works more than 25 hours each week at Pizza Hut.

Since coming to the Youth Villa in 1988, Linda has undergone extensive dental treatment that left her with an admiration for the medical profession. As a result, she plans to become a registered nurse.

If her efforts so far are any example, there's no doubt our Linda will attain all her goals.

When Rebecca Lowe, 18, graduated from Bartow High School last year, she left to live with family members. In January, she returned to the Youth Villa to live in the Transitional Living Unit, and enrolled at PCC as a full-time student. Rebecca hopes to be able to live on her own in the near future while attending college.

When Bartow High Senior Orly Kira moved into the unit, she purchased her own car, got a part-time job, became a high school senior, and was nominated to the Bartow High School homecoming court. When Orly turned 19 this spring, she felt secure enough to establish residence in Bartow while finishing her last year of high school.

Three other unit residents attend high school and hold down part-time jobs.

These stories are good examples of what the Transitional Living Unit does to help our youngsters ease into life as adults.

Getting into the unit at Dorista Cottage was a milestone for all five residents. Girls who live here have shown they can accept responsibility. They must work to function as a family unit, learn time and financial budgeting, balance a part-time job and school, and accept responsibilities that will allow them to eventually live successfully as adults on their own.

Rules are set jointly by the residents, Youth Villa Unit Social Worker Susan Turnbeau, and Group Care Worker Diane Larson, who lives in Dorista. Each girl must qualify for the cottage through responsible actions, and abide by a specific set of rules to remain there. The five girls "cheerfully" take turns with chores such as table setting, meal planning, grocery shopping, and housecleaning. They also provide moral support and give advice to each other. The sole purpose is to prepare the girls to live responsibly on their own.

Shot at random — but revealing

BARTOW — Although shot at random without any particular rhyme or reason, these photos reveal a basic truth about the lifestyle at the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa. It gives troubled youngsters an opportunity to re-examine and restructure their lives in a relaxed, secure environment that encourages them to develop self-reliance and self-esteem.

The Villa ceramics class made lots of Christmas gifts last year for family and friends. Lia Layton, left, Delores Williams, and Juliana Kirksey, apply the final touches of paint to their projects.

We're just waiting to hear the laughter of five hundred excited boys and girls

By Bill Frye
Summer Camp Director

Staff members at the Florida Sheriffs Youth Camp near Barberville have been busy making preparations for the 1991 summer camping sessions, and now we're getting downright anxious for the boys and girls to arrive.

The first session begins on June 12, and we can hardly wait for the first bus to pull in with its lively load of youngsters whose lives — hopefully — will be changed by their experiences.

The recreational center and cabins have been repaired. Buildings are being painted. We are also taking inventory, recruiting summer staff, and stocking up for nearly 500 troubled boys and girls who will attend our five 10-day sessions this summer.

We are proud to report that volunteer labor, plus generous gifts, have made it possible to expand our "chuckwagon" (dining hall) and we will now be able to provide adequate seating for staff and campers. Campsites have been improved, and we have acquired additional archery equipment as the result of a special donation from Bear Archery.

Volunteers have been responsible for many of the improvements. We had an energetic group the weekend of Feb. 8-10, and although they went home with blisters and sore muscles, the results of their labor was apparent. A lot of underbrush had been cleared away, and a new campsite for younger boys had been completed.

Preparations for summer camp require many hours of labor, and the results would not be possible without the gifts we receive from our donor family members, plus the help we get from former staff members and other great volunteers — especially those faithful law enforcement officers who also serve as counselors when camp is in session and put on demonstrations for the enjoyment of our youngsters.

Campers at the Youth Camp each take home an autograph book filled with the signatures of friends they make at camp.

We may be sweatin' a little now, but it will be worth it when we see the smiles of arriving campers stepping off the buses. It's going to be a great summer. Listen . . . can't you already hear the laughter of 500 excited boys and girls having a grand time?

CARUTH CAMP — Being extremely careful to avoid areas of tree roots, Caruth Camp maintenance employee Larry Holbrook lays PVC pipe for waterlines in preparation for the Raymond and Myrtle Whitaker Campsite construction.

CARUTH CAMP — Construction was in the early stages when these photos of the cabins were taken in early January.

Raymond and Myrtle Whitaker Campsite under construction at Caruth Camp

Construction of a second wilderness campsite at Caruth Camp began in early December with completion expected momentarily.

It will be officially known as the Raymond and Myrtle Whitaker Campsite. A $50,000 gift from the Whitakers, coupled with additional gifts from the Dunsbaugh-Dalton Foundation, Lockheed Employees Bucks of the Month Club, Calkins Foundation, and The Boeing Employees Good Neighbors Fund funded the construction. The cost of the campsite is estimated at $80,000.

Because the Youth Ranches believes in using experience to save money, we are adopting the Moose Camp design, but with minor improvements.

The Whitaker site has been carefully cleared, leaving the area around it undisturbed. Wild cabbage palms, pine trees, palmetto underbrush, and other natural growth were preserved in line with the wishes of our late benefactor, W. W. "Will" Caruth. A road was carefully designed to reduce the cutting of any trees over seven inches in diameter, and water lines were routed to avoid the roots of trees as much as possible.

The new campsite will have five raised cabins for youngsters, a kitchen/dining cabin, and one staff cabin situated in a circle with a wooden walkway connecting the buildings.

The new campsite will house nine youngsters, with three group leaders and one senior leader. The youngsters will be intensely involved in "experiential" learning programs where each day is filled with learning experiences primarily outside the classroom. "Experiential" programs consist of hikes, field trips, learning to protect the environment and live with nature, boating, and other activities that encourage troubled youngsters to learn through experience.

The Whitaker Campsite is the second of six planned campsites at Caruth Camp designed to eventually care for 54 troubled youngsters. The Moose Campsite was dedicated in 1988. Plans are already underway for a third.

Gift Annuity . . . A Gift That Gives and Provides Payments For Life

What is a charitable gift annuity?

A charitable gift annuity is a gift to help troubled boys and girls in Florida while providing a guaranteed lifetime income for the donor.

It is an irrevocable agreement by which you make a gift to a qualified charitable organization and receive fixed payments for life. It is also a gift since part of the payment is given for a non-profit cause. Charitable gift annuities are recognized by state and federal authorities as a way to make a gift, and they have been around for many many years.

The amount of income one receives is based upon the amount of the gift and the age of the donor. The older the donor, the higher the gift annuity rate.

A portion of the gift is immediately tax deductible as is a portion of the income.

Organizations issuing gift annuities are required by Florida law to meet precise financial standards and be registered. The Youth Ranches was the first organization in Florida to be issued a permit to write charitable gift annuities. The Youth Ranches permit number is DAAP-74-1. The Committee on Gift Annuities meets every three years to set the uniform annuity rates and the Youth Ranches is a sponsoring organization of this group.

You are encouraged to consult your attorney or other professional advisor for advice and assistance.

★ HONOR ROLL ★

Roster of Builders

To protect our donors from receiving unwanted solicitations and junk mail, we have discontinued printing home towns when we print names. This became necessary after we learned that certain organizations of questionable legitimacy were adding our donors to their mailing lists. As long as the home towns are not revealed, this will be extremely difficult to do. We want our donors to know that we have never permitted other organizations to use our lists of supporters, and we will continue to do everything possible to preserve their privacy.

This Honor Roll gives special recognition to generous supporters of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches and its five child care programs: the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch, Youth Villa, Youth Ranch, Youth Camp, and Caruth Camp. Those who give $100 or more receive Builder Certificates, and their names and pictures are printed in The Rancher. Those who give $1,000 or more receive a Lifetime Honorary Membership in the Florida Sheriffs Association, and their names and pictures are printed in The Sheriff's Star, official publication of the Florida Sheriffs Association. A large wall plaque is awarded to each Lifetime Honorary Member, and gold stars are added when that person's total gifts reach $5,000 (one star); $10,000 (two stars); $15,000 (three stars); $20,000 (four stars) and $25,000 (five stars). For those whose gifts total $50,000 or more there is a Golden Star Award.

Youth Ranches Key Ring:

A Lifetime of Security for Your Keys

The Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches, Inc., is offering lifetime security for your keys that provides help for a deserving child at the same time.

The lifetime key tag is made of die-cast metal, and is finished in a rich, antique gold color. When you purchase your key tag, the tag is registered at the Youth Ranches Central Office by the number embossed on the back. If your keys are lost, they can be dropped in any mailbox by the finder and will be returned to us. We will match you with your keys and return them to you.

This impressive key tag makes a perfect gift at only $10 each and will help support the care of a child.

For more information, contact the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches, Inc., at Boys Ranch, Florida 32060, or call 904-842-5501.

Cash register tapes to computers:

Thanks! Those receipts have really been pouring in

Our request for Albertson and Publix cash register receipts in the winter edition really produced a flood of results! Those receipts just poured in.

The deadline on Albertson receipts was so near at publication time that we didn't get enough receipts in time to get a computer. However, because the Publix deadline was Feb. 6, we had more time to collect receipts. This resulted in about $145,000 in Publix receipts being sent in.

Wouldn't you know, our wonderful donor family members ALL wrote "Rainbow Girls Computer" on the outside of their envelopes. This made it so easy for our mail room staff to direct the receipts to the proper department. A great big thanks to all of you for that very special effort.

We'll have a report on the results of the receipt drive in a future issue of The Rancher.

Thank you again, dear friends, for helping the Rainbow Girls with their Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches project to get Apple computers for our learning centers.

A gift from Americans of Italian Descent

Youth Ranches alumni return

SAFETY HARBOR — Many alumni of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranch returned last fall for the annual homecoming. The day was spent playing games, eating, renewing old friendships and making new ones. Former Youth Ranch residents brought their friends, parents, spouses and children and all reported having had a grand time. If you are an alumnus of the Youth Ranch, Youth Villa, or Boys Ranch and haven't given us your latest address, please contact us.

Check Presentations

COCOA — Youth Ranches Vice President Planned Giving Terry Knox (left) accepts a check in the amount of $3,700 from Brevard County Sheriff Jake Miller. The check represented proceeds from the 5th Annual Law Enforcement Fishing Tournament sponsored by Sheriff Miller.

CLEARWATER — Youth Ranches Regional Director Bill Biebueck accepts a check for $2,204.75 from the Sunshine State Women's Chamber of Commerce, presented by 1991 President, Norma Tlumac. The club also donated crafts items to the Youth Ranches Opportunity stores that brought in $295 in sales.

Moose gift was really appreciated

SAFETY HARBOR — After Loyal Order of Moose Lodge #1145, St. Petersburg, made a $3,000 gift to the Youth Ranch Learning Center, the Youth Ranch youngsters responded by presenting a handcrafted appreciation plaque to (from left) Liguori Saladin, Charles Gabberty and Richard Demint, representing the Lodge. The Youth Ranch was represented by residents Nathan Derby and Teri Marino. Also participating was Terry Knox (right), Youth Ranches Vice President Planned Giving.

HONOR GIFTS

A gift may be made to the Youth Ranches in honor of a person and/or a special occasion, such as a birthday, anniversary, etc. If appropriate, and if a mailing address is provided, a letter of acknowledgment will be made to the person being honored. A listing of the donor and the person honored will appear in a future issue of The Rancher magazine and, when address is provided, the person honored will receive a copy of the issue in which his or her name appears. In the listing below, the Honoree is listed first in all caps.

We're growing all kinds of winners at the Boys Ranch!

The Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches not only nurtures boys and girls to be winners, but recently had a winner of another kind. The Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch entered two steers in the annual Suwannee County Livestock Show and Sale and ended up with a grand champion steer and a blue ribbon winner. Rancher Rain Schliska, left, showed the 1,334 pound steer and put away a sizeable amount into his "rainy day account" after Mr. Leo Mobley, right, purchased the animal for $2.03 per pound.
