President's Perspective

A message from
C. T. O'Donnell II,
President of the Florida
Sheriffs Youth Ranches

Summer Camp Saves Lives

Summer camp can be the dream of a lifetime for a needy and deserving child. Eight days of learning, working, and fun with caring adults and law enforcement officers and others could mean the difference between a young person becoming an honest, hardworking, productive adult; or turning to a life of crime.

How can this be?

Each year, because of your generosity, hundreds of children enjoy the Florida Sheriffs Summer Camp. The Youth Ranches bus travels statewide to pick up girls and boys from every area of Florida.

Many of these children are needy - they come from families of low to moderate income who are, for the most part, unable to afford to send their youngsters to camp. These boys and girls deserve, and get, the fun and opportunities enjoyed by other American children who go to summer camp. They ride horses, go canoeing, learn archery, and make friends with other children, caring adults, and volunteer law officers in this peaceful, outdoor setting.

A few of these lucky youngsters will get the chance of a lifetime. They will receive much more than an eight-day reprieve from a sometimes difficult home situation; the dangerous, dirty streets; and the strong temptations and pressures of unsupervised peers. Those children with the greatest need and the fewest options may be selected for admission to one of the Youth Ranches year-round residential programs. But, sadly, there is a long waiting list for these services, and, with more boys and girls added daily, that list is growing.

The lucky youngsters eventually chosen for admission to the Youth Ranches programs—designed to prevent juvenile delinquency—will be taught the value of hard work, the importance of respecting adults, and how to care about themselves and others.

Because funding is limited this year, we will only be able to send 350 children to camp instead of the usual 550. However, we are extremely grateful for the generosity of our donor families who are helping to salvage the lives of these children.

Thank you for keeping the bus running! Thanks for the smiles on the faces of hundreds of boys and girls and the sound of laughter - and thanks especially for the very meaningful difference you make in the lives of a special few.

THE TARGET

by Patience Allison Hartbauer

*Go forth my child . . . into the world
With head and morals high.
You are the arrow . . . I am the bow
That sends you soaring through the sky.*

*My aim is straight.
My arm is strong.
My love and prayers
I send along.*

*The trip through life . . . can be unsure
For arrows often miss their mark.
But . . . faith in God and love and trust
Will lead you through the fearful dark.*

*Seek out a righteous cause to claim then . . . fly with dignity,
To make the sky-ways your life
All credits to humanity.*

*Though wind and rain . . . may cause you pain
And tempers call you in the night,
God's everlasting loving arms are there
To lift your wings in flight.*

*So . . . as you travel through this world,
And want to stop for worldly things, remember . . . that the target is . . .
To someday . . . earn your angel wings.*

A SOURCE OF

GREAT SUCCESS

Well Read! Camper Geoff brushes up on his reading skills with a special English lesson.

Imagine a world without words; a life without books; an existence without the ability to read or write . . .

Imagine not realizing that two plus two equals four; simple mathematics equations as incomprehensible; and the inability to count correct change after buying something as small as a candy bar . . .

Imagine believing the capital of the United States is New York; that Mexico is a state; or Hawaii is a country.

One of the most common characteristics of the boys that seek shelter and guidance at the Florida Sheriffs Caruth Camp is their constant struggle against educational obstacles. Due to emotional handicaps, learning disabilities, or behavioral problems, most of these troubled boys were “failing” in the classic school setting. Through the joint efforts of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches and the Levy County Dropout Prevention Program, these youngsters are meeting their educational challenges.

In a school atmosphere that emphasizes respect, and a lack of pressure, the Caruth Camp Learning Center is a place that allows kids the opportunity to try without fear of failure. The typical, formal classroom structure has made way for more “hands on” learning experiences, where achievements are more immediate and meaningful.

Camper Mickey takes a break from his studies to play frisbee with his peers. “I tossed it right to him!” Great job, Mickey!

"I conduct a lot of one-on-one tutoring with the boys," says Caruth Camp Director of Education Manny Smigel. "Those sessions give them the personal attention they need."

Mr. Smigel points to a set of their "Class Agreements" hanging on the Learning Center wall. Six rules are always within sight: speak with permission, raise your hand, keep your hands to yourself, be respectful, maintain good posture, and always try!

"I give no grades, all they must prove to me is that they are trying," continues Mr. Smigel. "Success breeds success. This is a school atmosphere that the kids enjoy; these youngsters actually like school now! That's the first step in turning them around!"

One major link in the educational program at Caruth Camp was established a few years ago with the publication of their first Caruth Camp Capers, a small newsletter filled with stories, experiences, and original drawings produced solely by the Campers. Required Capers contributions broaden the boy's writing skills, creative expression, and attention span.

Since attending a special group session that acquainted the Campers with today's popular writers, some of the boys are hooked on the idea of becoming famous authors. One young man is literally teaching himself to write by sounding-out words and letters, and using the Learning Center computer's spell-check as a guide.

"The boy's progress has been remarkable," notes Mr. Smigel. "Some of the students that were once hesitant to read in class, now volunteer to lead lessons; their spelling has improved; their writing has strengthened."

Special group field trips to historical sites such as Fort Sumter or ancient Indian tribal lands, also provide opportunities for Campers to study the basics of math, history, geography, reading, and writing. By calculating expenses, working out itinerary, preparing a budget, and capturing their experiences on paper, Caruth Campers are exposed to a unique teaching method where "homework" takes the form of practical knowledge and "hands on" experience.

The imagination of a young boy will come to life when he discovers the joys of learning at the Florida Sheriffs Caruth Camp. Each day, boys are realizing their dreams and becoming young men; learning the road to maturity and responsibility; discovering that through education and literacy, you can accomplish whatever goals you set out to reach.

At the Florida Sheriffs Caruth Camp, underprivileged boys are experiencing a renewal, and beginning to realize that frustrating educational challenges can become . . . a source of great success.

Just Saying "NO!"

In the unending attempt to rescue America's youth and reclaim our streets from the grip of illegal drugs, many have fought the "War on Drugs" by encouraging youngsters to, "Just Say No!"

Those relentless efforts paid off recently when several of our Caruth Campers were approached by a stranger during a special retreat to Juniper Springs. Thanks to constant education and a keen awareness of the dangers of drugs, when a man asked our boys to buy a slender, white, marijuana cigarette all of the boys shouted a resounding, "No!" and later turned the stranger over to authorities. Thanks to their courage and smart-thinking the criminal was apprehended and arrested.

Congratulations boys, for setting such a splendid example!

A SMILE

by a caring Youth Ranches Staff Member

As I sit at my desk, I watch and think . . .
I see young boys and young girls,
they have come to this place;
it's called a "Ranch."

It is not the typical Ranch, in the usual way of thinking.
Yes, it is a place which cultivates and grows its own necessities to survive;
this Ranch has cattle, horses, the usual barn cats,
and a wonderful fishing spot;
it has vegetable gardens and flower gardens, too.
But, most importantly,
this is a place that cultivates and grows understanding,
kindness, fairness of play, sharing, sensitivity and respect;
respect for one's self and love for one's fellow companions.

As I sit at my desk, I watch and think . . .
I see young people struggling and fighting within themselves and with each other;
trying desperately to push away
their feelings of loneliness, rejection, hate.
I sense their confusion;
I have, on occasion, watched them, as individuals;
fight away tears.

As I sit at my desk, I watch and think . . .
I wish I could manage some way to help;
be a friend, someone to laugh with, tell a joke to;
someone to put a kind arm around,
or possibly even a hug, if needed.
Someone who could listen;
listen to the breaking heart of a growing young teenager,
who doesn't understand.

I know my place.
I cannot say much or do much.

As I sit at my desk, I watch and think . . .
Of these young adults, through perseverance of heart and mind; through the struggles;
the attempts;
through confusion, fear, and anger, will someday win;
and become the wonderful, kind, sincere, humorous, understanding, fair, respectful, and loving people they were meant to be; always knowing that somewhere, somehow, someday; someone will be there to respect
them and love them.

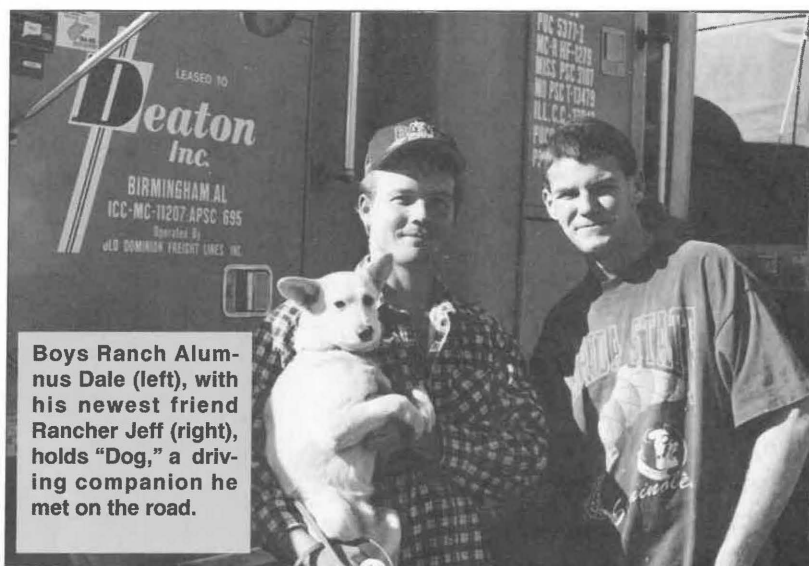

As I sit at my desk, I watch and think . . .
that perhaps then, I will meet again and shake hands,
with these strong, understanding, gentlemen and ladies;
I will tell them how this person "knew them when,"
and how proud this innocent bystander has become.

So, as I sit at my desk, I watch and think . . .
And give,
give them what I can;
A smile . . .
Every day!

Rancher Jeff (right) learns there is more to driving a truck than simply spinning the wheel. Boys Ranch Alumnus Dale (left) says, "... a serious driver must learn how to secure his load, adjust the brakes, and conduct routine maintenance."

Dale (left) points out a few of the safety rules involved with truck driving to Rancher Jeff (right), an aspiring driver.

After 22,000 miles, through 25 states, in only four months . . . "Reverse" Is Moving Forward

Dale Culverson — slightly unshaven, baseball cap tipped back to the sky — is reliving a moment of self discovery . . .

"It was during a training session," recalls Dale. "My rig was stopped at a traffic light, when we unexpectedly started rolling backwards. I managed to stop quickly, but ever since then, I've been known as 'Reverse.'"

Dale lived at the Boys Ranch throughout the 1980s, spending time at both Lewis and Saunders cottages, respectively. Mom and Pop Whitehead were pleased he dropped by to say hello. "At one point in time, he was a young man with very little focus," says Mom Whitehead. "It's so nice to see him so excited, to have a direction and a passion in his life."

Driving a 25-ton semi down the lonely, open highways of misty mornings, steamy days, and darkened nights may not be one of the most glamorous of professions — Dale is first to admit that. "It's a living, but it's also something I enjoy. I'm happy with how things have turned out. There has to be truck drivers in this world . . . I'm just happy to be one of them."

There are many restrictions for drivers to know, functions to learn, and laws to obey while at the wheel — just holding onto it being the first. "You don't just jump in a rig one day and start driving," says Dale. "I went to school to become a driver; I studied; I practiced; I learned how to repair my truck, adjust the brakes, secure the load, fill-out the proper logs. I have four licenses just in order to drive...legally and safely."

Dale's experiences have also been an inspiration to Jeff, a teenage Boys Ranch resident interested in becoming a truck driver as well. Does all that driving scare him? "Nah, I know I'll love it," says Jeff.

So, how does Dale manage to concentrate, driving up to 500 miles a day? "He keeps me company," says Dale with a smile, patting his young mutt. "'Dog' always comes along for the ride."

"Newman's Own" Cause

When philanthropist and acting legend Paul Newman set out to market his homemade olive oil and vinegar salad dressing 13 years ago, not many imagined where it would lead or the lives that this "whim" would help save . . .

For years, Paul Newman packaged homemade salad dressing in old wine bottles as Christmas gifts. One day, as a lark, he and longtime friend, author A. E. Hotchner, decided to market the dressing, reasoning that "what is good enough for my pals is good enough for the public."

Over the years, Newman's Own, Inc., has expanded its line of products rapidly. Today, in addition to the original salad dressing, Newman's Own produces caesar, ranch, and lite Italian dressings; spaghetti sauces; salsa; popcorn; and lemonade.

Newman attributes the extraordinary success of his food company to two policies. First, he insists on top quality products without the addition of artificial ingredients or preservatives. Second, and perhaps most importantly, he donates ALL profits — after taxes — to educational and charitable organizations around the world.

Since its founding in 1982, Mr. Newman has given away approximately $62 million — one hundred percent of after-tax profits — to needy, charitable organizations. Mr. Newman reviews all the requests for funding, and personally selects the groups and organizations that receive contributions annually. He is continually searching for organizations outside of the charity mainstream that help those who often cannot help themselves.

Recently, Newman has focused his attentions on children's issues and, as part of last year's $6 million profit, he personally selected the Florida Sheriffs

"What I particularly like about this unpredictable company of mine," Newman says, "is that we furnish people with wholesome food that they enjoy which then enables us to take the profits we make and give them to the unfortunate people of the country who, because of poverty, sickness, old age or illiteracy, desperately need help. That's what makes this business such a kick — it's mutually beneficial, recycling from the 'haves' to the 'have-nots'."

Youth Ranches as one of his worthwhile charitable beneficiaries! With the strong recommendations of the Lakeland-based Publix Corporation, the Youth Ranches was earmarked for a $15,000 gift from Newman's Own, Inc., to help the troubled, neglected, and abused children of Florida.

Thanks to the vision, determination, and kindred soul of one of America's most beloved motion picture legends, needy all across the world will sleep sounder tonight . . . and, they may even get to dream, too.

Cell-mates! "Bonnie & Clyde" renewed their friendship while in the "slammer."

Hernando County Sheriff Tom Mylander welcomes his incarcerated guests and gratefully acknowledges their generosity to the Youth Ranches. Over $8,500 was raised at the Hernando County Lockdown.

Hernando County "Locks-Down" Support For Youth Ranches

Imagine making a reservation and paying in advance to spend a night in jail! With unstoppable vigor, the good law-abiding citizens of Hernando County responded overwhelmingly to Hernando County Sheriff Tom Mylander's invitation to do just that!

As soon as the word was out, reservations began pouring in. Because of the great response, a waiting list was formed and the "inmates" got a real taste of what overcrowding is like. While the tremendous reply was quite a surprise to many,

Sheriff Mylander was not caught off guard.

"The people of Hernando County are very generous," said Sheriff Mylander with great pride, a slight grin reaching across his cheeks. "I knew they would respond to an innovative idea that was matched to a good cause."

Held at the newly constructed Hernando County Work Release Center, the lockdown actually served two main purposes: to give the facility, run by Corrections Corporation of America, a "dry run" prior to admitting actual inmates and to raise money for the prevention of juvenile delinquency through the service of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches.

Granting the "Little Boy" a Wish

Strangers search their pockets for loose change and toss silvery coins into the air; arcing end-over-end in flight, the donations splash in the stirring waters of a newly dedicated wishing fountain . . .

Thanks to the Port Charlotte Town Center Mall, World Book, Inc., and the Charlotte County Sheriff's Office, this will be the scene through the end of the year at the "Little Boy Wishing Fountain" located in the Port Charlotte Town Center Mall. Working in conjunction with DeBartolo Enterprises, owners of the mall, the Youth Ranches hopes to secure wishing fountains in other malls around the state.

"We're so pleased we could be apart of this unique program," said Charlotte County Sheriff Richard Worch. "I'm very proud of our county's involvement and community support."

Any funds collected in this unique fountain will benefit the needy boys and girls of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches.

Wishes already coming true with donation of World Books

In association with the "Little Boy Wishing Fountain" Dedication Ceremonies at the Port Charlotte Town Center, World Book Representative Nancy Jordan presented five sets of the World Book Encyclopedia of Science to the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. Each of the Youth Ranches residential child-care facilities will receive a 5-volume set for their use in on-campus Learning Centers. Thanks to World Book, Inc., for their generous gift and constant interest in the education of today's youth.

LOOKING BACK . . . Did You Know?

Last December, a special gift from CSX Transportation brightened the holiday season for some of our boys, making it possible for many of them to attend the 1994 Gator Bowl held in Gainesville. Alachua County Sheriff Steve Oelrich (center/left) and his wife, Youth Ranches Board Member Rose Mary Treadway Oelrich (center/right) cheered with our youngsters as they watched the Tennessee Volunteers battle the Virginia Tech Hokies.

REMEMBERING THE GIRLS OF WALLA-WALLA: A Summer Camp Appeal

Who could forget the precious young girls of the Walla-Walla campsite who visited the Florida Sheriffs Summer Camp last year. Their smiles are so memorable!

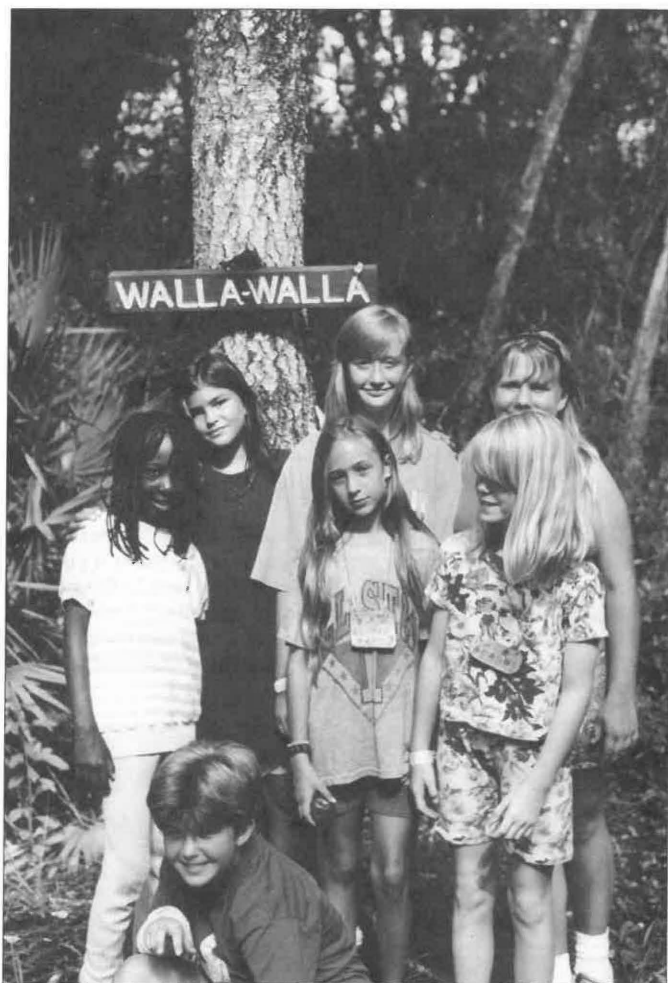

Thanks to our generous donor family, these energetic girls were able to forget about the troubles of daily life and simply spend one week acting as children.

The Rancher magazine chronicled those special summer days. Beginning with morning breakfast and "Congress" with the Walla-Wallas, where fresh, inspiring thoughts and daily goals were discussed; to their afternoon drifts along the lake in canoes, and dips in the deep-blue waters of a nearby pool to cool from the summertime heat; and the self-esteem building experiences in the "work" program, and nightly powwow, where everyone exchanged positive thoughts and fireside sing-alongs to end the day.

Because of caring individuals like you, and of the dedication throughout the state to help needy and abused children get a fresh start or helping hand, each summer boys and girls just like the Walla-Wallas are forging new friendships, forming long-lasting memories, learning to care for peers, increasing self-confidence and self-esteem, learning to work as a team in group settings, and sharing happiness. It is not too late to help these children realize their dreams!

There is still time to help sponsor a needy child in camp! There is still time to create miracles! There is still time to fulfill dreams and grant hope!

Please help us send more troubled boys and girls on a magical journey. Please remember the girls of Walla-Walla...how could anyone ever forget?

WHAT AN OPPORTUNITY... Store that is !

When the first Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches Opportunity Store opened its doors in 1987, no one could have imagined what a positive impact it would have on the youth of our state.

In just eight years, the Youth Ranches network of Opportunity Stores has reached four (Live Oak, Stuart, Crystal River, and Delray Beach, the latest addition).

Dedicated to preventing juvenile delinquency, the Opportunity or Thrift Stores have provided a creative way for donors to give items other than cash to raise funding to help troubled, neglected, and underprivileged children of Florida.

The Delray Beach store, like the other Opportunity Stores around the state, offers everything from apparel to appliances and electronics to jewelry. "The money that comes from the four thrift stores is used to support the Ranches and help the kids," says retired Palm Beach County Sheriff Richard Wille. "Our goal is to get these neglected children back into a stable living environment in their communities and with their families."

Youth Ranches Friend Jimmy Richardson Dies at 78

"Jimmy was a true patron and leader in his community," says Youth Ranches President-Emeritus Harry Weaver. "He was always concerned with the welfare of his family, friends, neighbors, and truly a dedicated friend to the Youth Ranches boys and girls."

The Youth Ranches "family" is mourning the recent death of James G. Richardson on April 1, 1995. He was 78.

A former World War II army officer, University of Florida finance professor, three-time Gainesville mayor/commissioner, businessman, philanthropist, and patron of the arts, Mr. Richardson also found time to serve the Youth Ranches as Chief Investment Officer over many years and through many changes. His guidance and counsel will be deeply missed.

A "HOEDOWN IN THE HAMMOCK" Means Caruth Camp Open House

Set within woods that hug the Nature Coast, the Caruth Camp is a therapeutic "Wilderness" camping program designed specifically for youngsters with behavioral, educational, and emotional challenges. For these campers, Caruth's Annual Open House represents an opportunity for the boys to proudly share their progress and tremendous accomplishments with others.

With broad smiles crossing the faces of campers, friends, and families, the Florida Sheriffs Caruth Campers welcomed all to their campus. Recently named the "Hoedown in the Hammock," this special event brought hundreds of people out for good food, fellowship, and fun.

Throughout the day, many of the boys had the chance to help others see and understand their life at Caruth. They led tours of the campsites, explained the woodshop program, shared stories from great mountain trips, and just visited with the friendly folks who came to Caruth Camp for the day. Each interaction reminded the boys that people really do care and will show an interest in their accomplishments.

The "Hoedown in the Hammock" also featured great music by Harry Trott and the Noname Bluegrass Band and the Crystal River Heat Band. Delicious barbecue cooked to perfection by the Marion County Sheriffs Office, corn-on-the-cob prepared by Levy County Sheriff Ted Glass, and other fixin's compliments of the Alachua County Sheriffs Office, was thoroughly enjoyed by those who visited Caruth Camp on that fine spring day.

Overall, it was a relaxing, casual opportunity to spend some time enjoying the outdoors and experiencing firsthand the tremendous successful changes occurring each and every day in the young lives of the children living, working, and growing at the Florida Sheriffs Caruth Camp.

Charitable Gift Annuity

The charitable gift annuity allows you to give to our troubled boys and girls and also provides you and/or someone you designate with a guaranteed periodic payment for life.

A sizeable portion of your gift (cash, stocks, bonds, or mutual funds) is immediately tax deductible and a portion of the periodic annuity payment is tax-free during normal life expectancy. The agreement is irrevocable and is guaranteed by the full assets of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches, Inc.

The amount of the annuity payment is based on the amount of the gift and the age of the annuitant. Typically, the older you are, the greater the payment.

Organizations that are permitted to issue gift annuity agreements are required by state and federal law to meet stringent financial standards. The Youth Ranches was the first organization in the state of Florida to receive a permit number, which is DAAP-74-1.

The American Council on Gift Annuities meets every three years to establish the uniform gift annuity rates. The Youth Ranches is a sponsoring organization of this group.

HONOR ROLL

Roster of Builders - To protect our donors from receiving unwanted solicitations and junk mail, we have discontinued printing home towns when we print names. This became necessary after we learned that certain organizations of questionable legitimacy were adding our donors to their mailing lists. As long as the home towns are not revealed, this will be extremely difficult to do. We want our donors to know that we have never permitted other organizations to use our lists of supporters, and we will continue to do everything possible to preserve their privacy.

This Honor Roll gives special recognition to generous supporters of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches and its six child-care programs: the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch, Youth Villa, Youth Ranch/Safety Harbor, Youth Ranch-Bradenton/Sarasota, Youth Camp, and Caruth Camp. Those who give $100 or more receive a Builder Certificate, and their names and pictures are printed in The Rancher. Those who give $1,000 or more receive Lifetime Honorary Membership in the Florida Sheriffs Association, and their names and pictures are printed in the Sheriff's Star, official publication of the Florida Sheriffs Association. A large wall plaque is awarded to each Lifetime Honorary Member, and gold stars are added when that person's total gifts reach $5,000 (one star); $10,000 (two stars); $15,000 (three stars); $20,000 (four stars); and $25,000 (five stars). For gifts of $50,000 or more, there is the Golden Star Award. Donors of $100,000 or more receive the Grand Star Award.

3rd Annual Phillips Bait & Tackle Kids Fishing Tournament hooks support for Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa

Each year, Phillips Bait and Tackle donates all proceeds from their Kid's Fishing Tournament to a worthwhile organization that serves needy youth in their community—the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa was a first-time recipient this year.

Throughout the day, over 70 boys and girls vied for fishing tackle, toys, and the Grand Prize—a 12-foot, two-man boat. Youth Villa residents, under the supervision of staff, helped with the festivities, handling registration, weigh-in, and the distribution of prizes.

Both young and old enjoyed the fun-filled morning and are already looking forward to next year. "This was the biggest tournament yet," said Mr. Phillips, "and it gets bigger every year."

Legendary Visit Creates Legendary Day

Much has changed in the film industry since the days when Charlie Chaplin graced the silver screen with his patented walk and unmatched style—he could make you laugh without saying a word.

Today, "talkies"—as the initial sound pictures were first called—dominate theaters and the glitz of "old" Hollywood has vastly faded from America's everchanging entertainment landscape. But, memories of the once fabled city survive as loved ones carry on those traditions while creating new ones.

In the smile of Jane Chaplin (Charlie Chaplin's

Rancher Follow-Up DID YOU KNOW?

Everyone remembers Christina Jones and her twin sister Nina romping around the Youth Ranch-

Safety Harbor years ago and of Christina's recent marriage. But, not everyone realizes that Christina was a special speaker at the last Florida Sheriffs Association Midwinter Conference. She attended the conference to thank Florida's Sheriffs for the opportunities and benefits she and her sister received through the years from the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches.

daughter) you will not only catch a glimpse of a time gone by, but also an individual dedicated to creating a brighter today by helping youth in her community through film and charity. "When I relocated my production company to Florida," says Jane Chaplin, "I immediately found out about the Youth Ranches. Through a recommendation from Sheriff Beary (Orange County), I decided to help all I could."

Thanks to the kindness and hospitality of Jane Chaplin and Universal Studios, the Youth Villa girls were treated to a sunny, fun-filled afternoon at the Universal Studios Theme Park. Mixing the thrills of movie magic with the faces of movie legend, our girls met a warmhearted celebrity and created their own memorable, legendary day.

This year select an Honor Gift as "A Special Way to Celebrate!"

When a loved one or someone close to you is celebrating a special moment in his/her life, traditional gifts like flowers and cards quickly come to mind; but, unconventional ways of saying "Congratulations!", "Happy Birthday!" or "Job Well Done!" can be even more meaningful when they help young boys and girls.

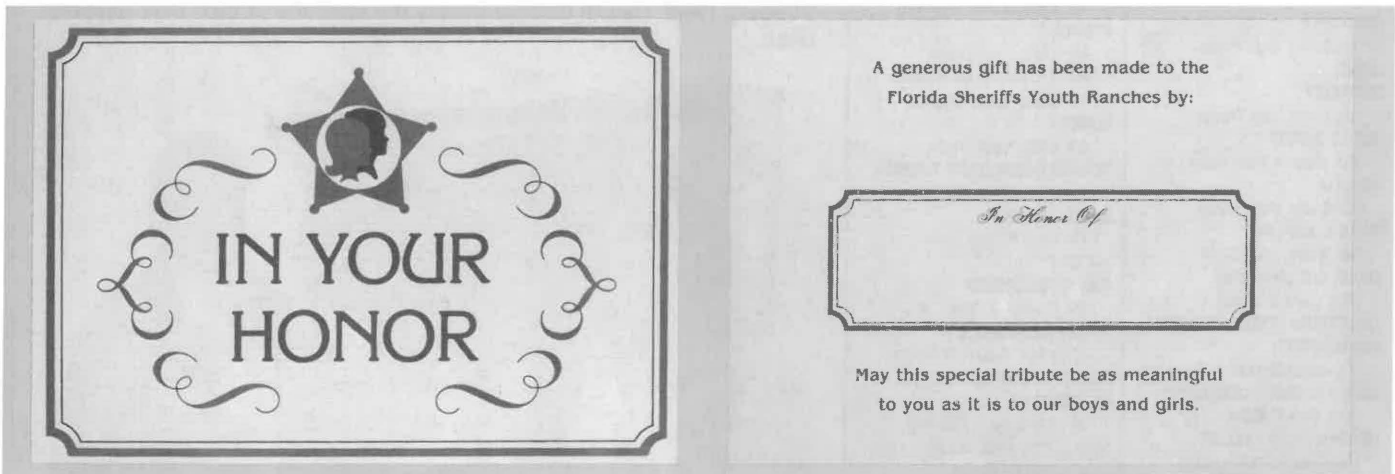

Ranches and dedicating it in someone's name, you are not only supporting the troubled, neglected, abused, and underprivileged boys and girls of Florida, but also honoring a loved one. We will recognize your gift in their honor, by sending an attractive honor card.

If you are interested in naming a friend or family member for an Honor Gift, please use the enclosed envelope or call the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches at (904) 842-5501, for more information.

At the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches, an Honor Gift is a convenient and thoughtful way to remember family or friends on special occasions, birthdays, anniversaries, and/or graduations. By making a cash gift to the Youth

Sleeping Well! Caruth Campers enjoy the comforts of their new sleeping bags.

Nature Coast Sertoma Club President Katherine Claffey presents a check to her son and Caruth Camp Senior Group Leader Steve Claffey, donated to the camp for the purchase of sleeping bags.

Sertoma's sleeping bags

Where would campers be without sleeping bags?
"Probably out in the cold, I imagine," replies Steve Claffey, Senior Group Leader at the Caruth Camp.

But, thanks to a generous donation from the Nature Coast Sertoma Club, represented by president Katherine Claffey, Caruth Camp will not do without these costly necessities.

"I was glad we could help the children of the camp," says Mrs. Claffey. "The camping experience is so important to a young boy. The Sertoma Club members are proud to do our part."

Three Green Thumbs in the Garden

The Florida sunshine is casting few shadows, brightening rosy cheeks, and warming faces. In the garden of the Youth Villa, three girls tend to the soft earth; shoveling, digging, planting, and creating blossoms for seasons yet unseen.

Working together allows the girls to learn the value of using teamwork, preserving nature, and building self-esteem. Their broad smiles are signs of success in a job well done!
