President's Perspective

A message from Harry K. Weaver,
President of the Florida Sheriffs
Youth Ranches

I never cease to get excited about the annual Open House and Horse Show held at the Boys Ranch each year, the first full weekend in October.

This past event held on October 2, 3, and 4, 1998, was no exception. A record crowd of people, old friends, new friends, donors, families, old staff, new staff, Sheriffs, and Board members, gathered to enjoy the festivities.

Oh yes, there was a record number of horses registered for the event, too -- 589 horses, to be exact.

Quite often, during Open House activities, I hear a personal and heartwarming story that has happened to one of the Boys Ranch residents or an alumnus.

I'd like to share the following inspirational story:

While I was sitting and talking with Youth Ranches friends on the banks of the beautiful and historic Suwannee River as it lazily winds along four miles of Boys Ranch property, a Boys Ranch alumnus came to me and said, "I have someone I would like you to meet." This particular alumnus was one of three brothers who needed the Boys Ranch's help in the early 60s. Each lived at the Boys Ranch for a number of years; each graduated from Suwannee High School; and each has become productive members in their respective communities. They have all handled great personal challenges with dignity and class. Their life-long efforts have resulted in highly commendable outcomes.

I then met a sister whom the brothers had just found and never seen. Her own family attended the Open House as well as some of the family members of the brothers.

What a glorious and happy occasion for me! You can imagine what it all meant to the brothers and their new-found sister.

To our Donor Family, we say thanks again for small and large miracles. I really wish you could experience the joy first hand of such events, but you can take pride in the fact that you make it all happen with your commitment, concern and generosity. Thank you!

Presidential Update

After months of careful scrutiny, the Presidential Selection Committee has decided to recommend Roger O. Bouchard, Jr., to the Board of Directors for consideration as the next President of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. The Board of Directors' next meeting will be held on Thursday, November 19, 1998, and it is expected that action will be taken on this date regarding the Committee's recommendation.

Mr. Bouchard is currently the Vice President of Program. He was employed on July 9, 1990, as the Resident Director of the Boys Ranch. On April 1, 1992, he was promoted to his current position. Prior to coming to the Youth Ranches, Mr. Bouchard had worked in direct childcare and social services in Florida, Alabama, Hawaii, and Guam.

He possesses a Master's Degree in Social Work. His wife, Sheila, is a Social Worker for the Hamilton County Schools in Jasper. They have two sons, Gabe and Josh, who are students at the University of Florida; and a daughter, Amy, who is a sophomore at Suwannee High School.

A Florida native, Mr. Bouchard grew up in the Clearwater area, where his parents still reside.

ON THE MOVE

Since the establishment of a mobile camping unit, the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches has been available to help more and more needy children. With proven therapeutic camping activities like arts and crafts, initiative games and a portable Challenge Course, Project Harmony: "Takin' It To The Streets" expands the Youth Ranches' ability to reach more children in desperate need of supervision and guidance.

Bringing Kids A New "Challenge"

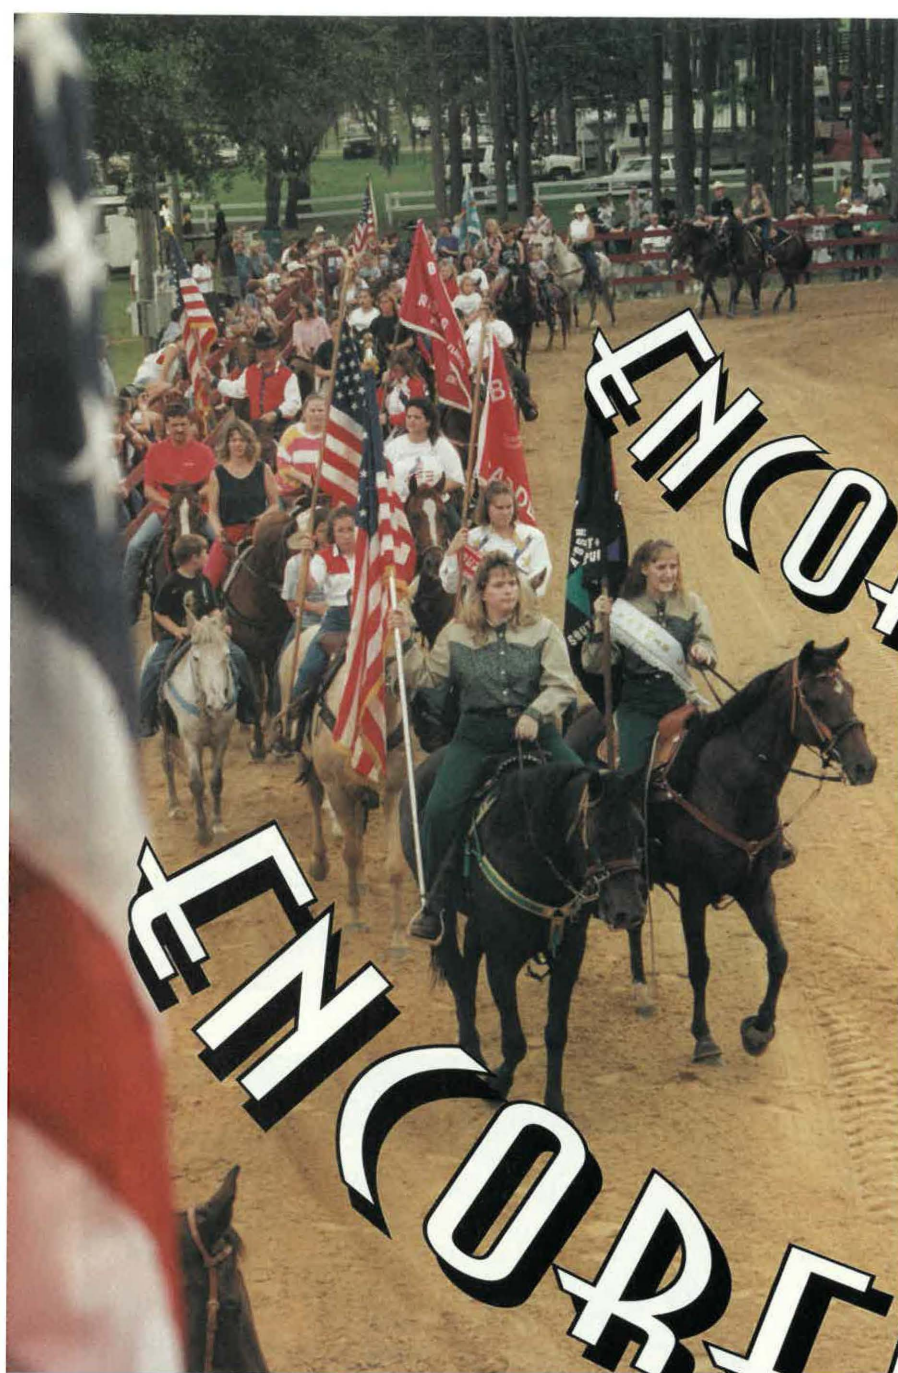

"Keep moving," one girl calls out to another on her team as they walk from beam to beam, balancing on heel and toe to reach the end of the Challenge Course activity. "Here, take my hand." The two girls weebil and wobble, but don't fall down. Through teamwork, trust and the support of a helping hand, they both make it to the other side of the board safely.

With only a few blocks and four pieces of wood, mobile camp counselors can create an instant "Piranha Lake" adventure, one of the same challenges campers face at both the Youth Camp and Caruth Camp. Balancing on thin, wooden planks that rest between zig-zagged blocks, and with only a limited amount of boards to work with, campers must use teamwork, communication and ingenuity to design a strategy for getting across the "dangerous" moat.

But, no matter what the location, whether it be deep in the woods and pines of a forest, or in an empty patch of grass along a neighborhood sidewalk, it is truly remarkable to witness the excitement and camaraderie which develops in underprivileged boys and girls

The Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches sets its sights on another 40 years as they celebrate their 41st Anniversary with the Annual Boys Ranch Open House and Horse Show.

Life Begins After 40

After 40 extraordinary years of nurturing, educating and reuniting over 33,000 boys, girls and their families, some would ask, "What is left to do?" For the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches, that answer is "plenty!" You see, for over four decades, the Youth Ranches, with the help of generous donors, friends, family, law enforcement officers and community leaders, has sought to end juvenile delinquency and neglect. Realistically, the life-saving programs the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches offer are needed now more than ever.

With the 41st Anniversary freshly painted in its memories, the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches is beginning anew. Youth Ranches faithful are busy preparing the agency for a new millennium, and another 40 years of successful child care initiatives and renown programs which will save thousands more children each year. After all, life begins after 40, and the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches has only begun the fight against juvenile delinquency and neglect.

An Encore Performance

Last year's open house festivities will always be treasured. Reaching the Boys Ranch's 40th Anniversary was a modern-day milestone. Whether it be the historical STAR dedication atop the Ranch hillside or honoring special friends who are no longer with us to celebrate, last year's special celebrations and commemoration will be forever remembered.

How do you top such a historical event? With tradition, loyalty, saga and the largest recorded crowd ever. Caravans of campers began rolling onto the Boys Ranch campus early in the week, anxious to begin another Youth Ranches celebration. The weekend was again highlighted by the annual chicken pilau (per-low), an old-fashioned, Southern barbeque on the banks of the majestic Suwannee River, and the traditional horse show at the Clay Mavericks Arena. Crowds of loyal Youth Ranches supporters, including donors, law enforcement officers, friends, family, staff and volunteers assured there would be another Open House success. Everyone involved should be congratulated on a stunning encore performance.

Our Friend Award

On behalf of the Boys Ranch Alumni Association, long-time Youth Ranches friend and employee Patty Bues (left) presented the 1998 "Our Friend Award" to Fred and Evelyn McGranahan for their continued devotion and service to Florida's needy, neglected and troubled youngsters. "It's an honor to receive this award," says Mr. McGranahan. "I hope my wife and I can help inspire others to help these young boys get a second chance at life."

Pilau (per-low) Patrol

The way to a Ranchers heart is through their stomach. Each year, the traditional chicken pilau (per-low) marks the official beginning of the Annual Boys Ranch Open House and Horse Show. This year's 41st Anniversary Celebration was no exception. In fact, the delicious chicken and rice served a record number of Boys Ranch visitors. And, like so many previous years before, the faithful Deputies of the Suwannee County Sheriff's Office volunteered to prepare the dinner, while both the Clay County and St. Johns County Sheriffs' Officers helped serve the meal.

First Time For Everything

Sheriffs "Chip In" to make 1st Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch Golf Tournament a SUCCESS!

Golf tournaments help raise thousands of dollars each year for the boys and girls of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. This fall, in conjunction with the Boys Ranch Annual Open House and Horse Show, a benefit golf tournament has been established to help in the fight against juvenile delinquency and neglect. Sponsored by four surrounding counties, and thanks to Suwannee County Sheriff Al Williams, Hamilton County Sheriff Harrell Reid, Levy County Sheriff Ted Glass, Columbia County Sheriff Frank Owens, and Sarasota County Sheriff Geoff Monge (at left), the special event raised almost $9,000 for the needy youth of Florida.

Sheriff Monge

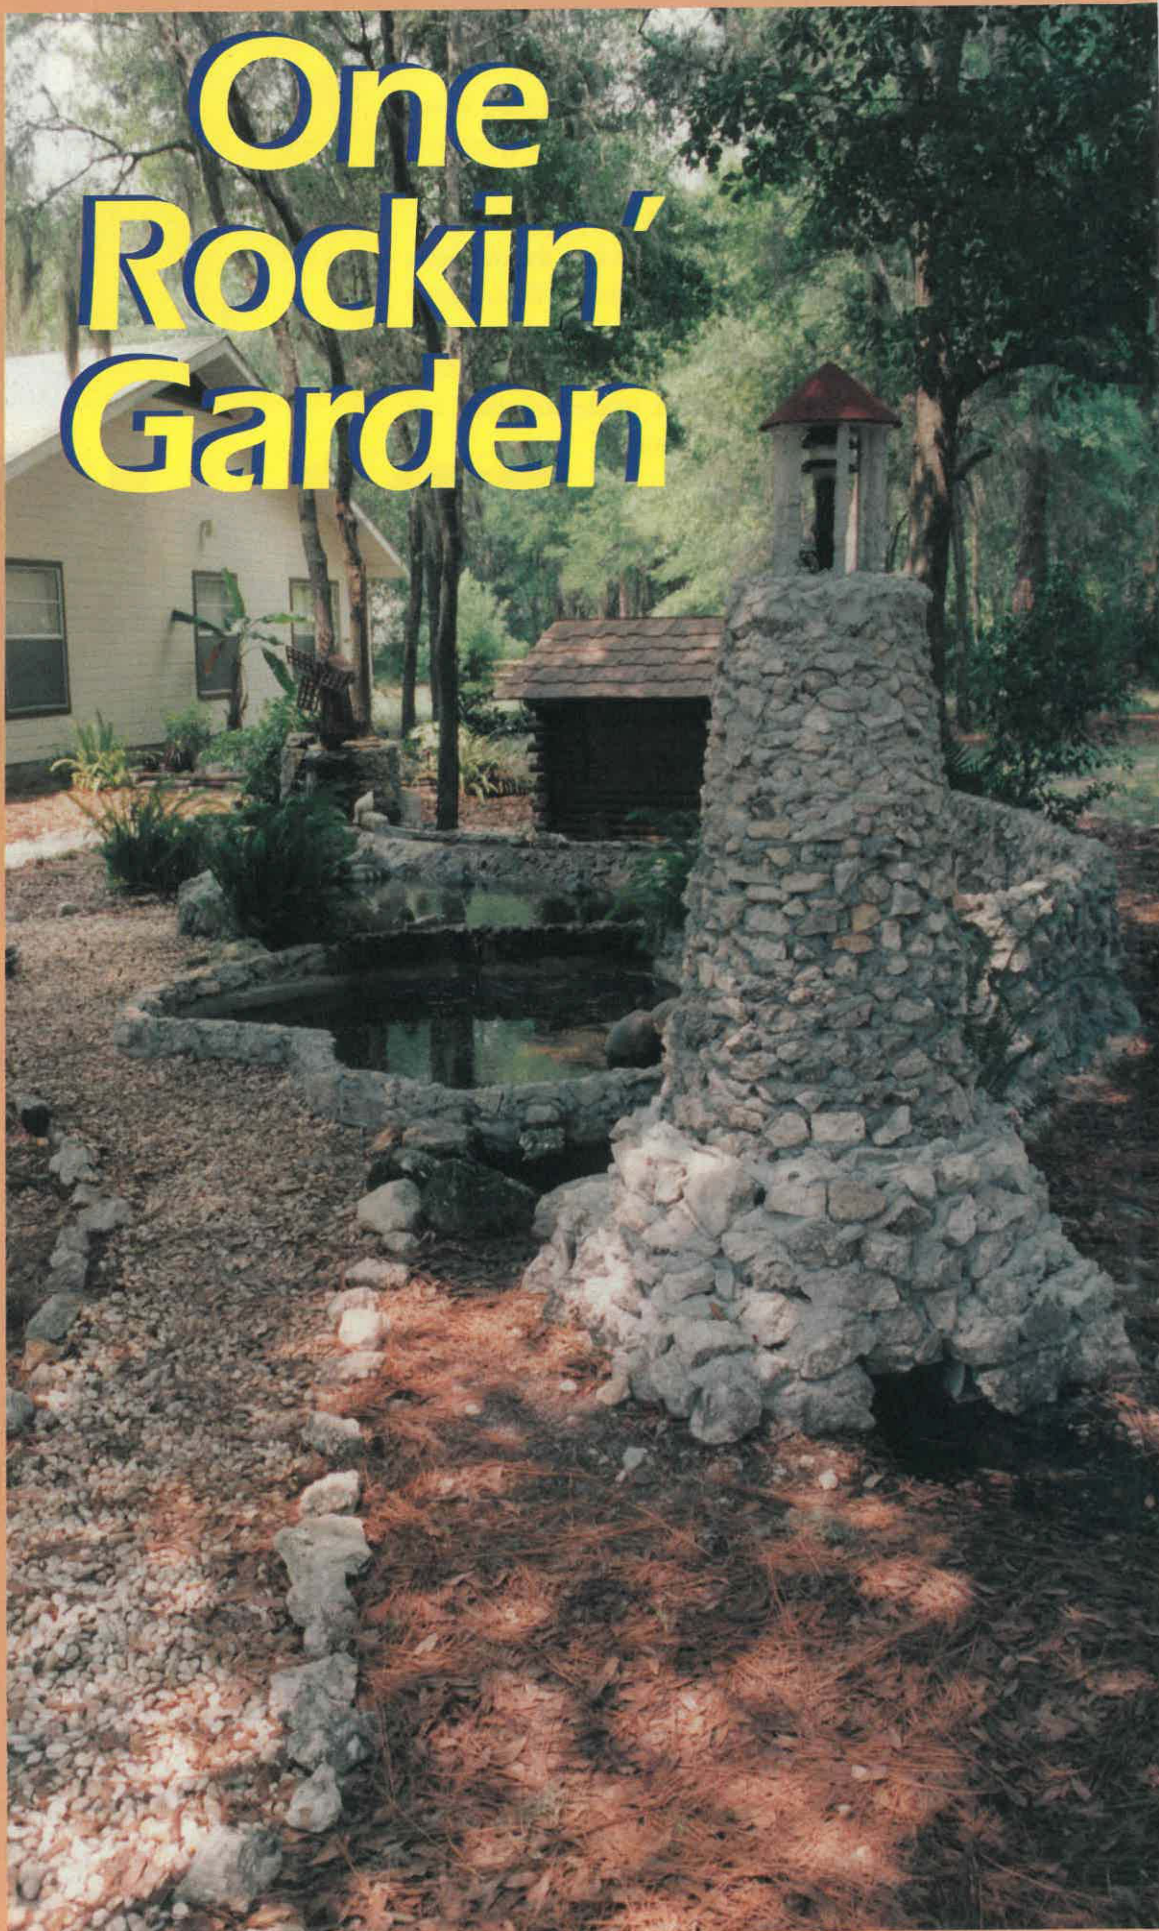

An artist creates portraits on empty canvases; a writer forms sentences along the lines of a white page; a musician carves symphonies from notes on a staff. The Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches turns tragedies into miracles; builds hope from despair.

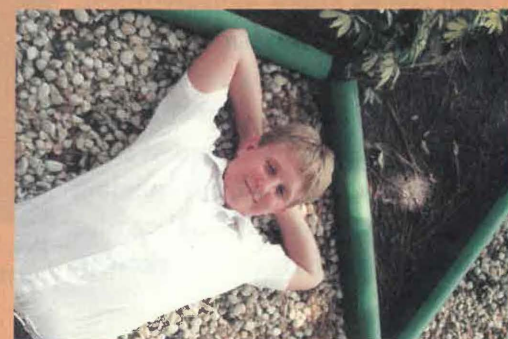

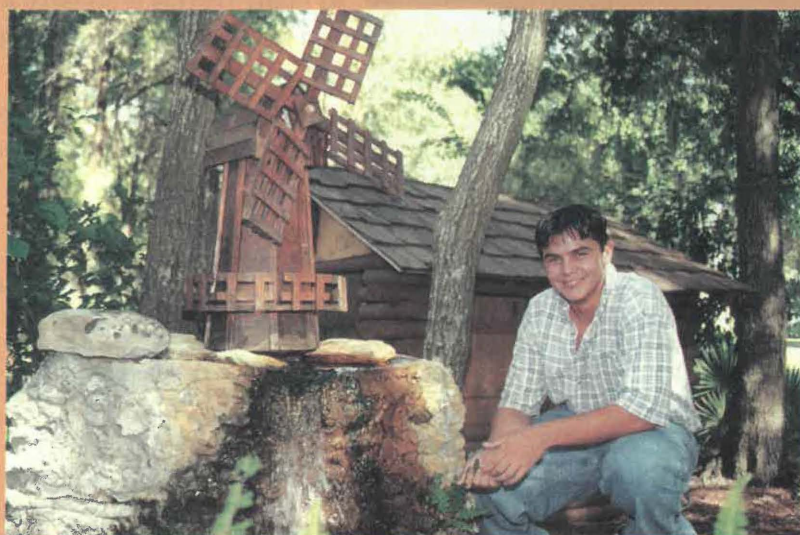

It takes a special individual to create something from nothing. "Barely anything was growing," says Rancher Matt. "It was a great spot."

At the Youth Ranch-Bradenton/Sarasota, at-risk boys have created something from nothing. Through the leadership, ingenuity and hard work of "Pop" Jenkins and many young Ranchers, a magnificent rock garden was constructed in a barren portion of the Aurora Cottage yard. After years of patient planning and building, the special garden has become an intricate maze of cement ponds, rolling waterfalls and stone paths.

But, even with its lighthouse and waterfalls and windmill, the most unique aspect of the garden project is its participants. After all, the rock garden is an

One Rockin' Garden

To build such a monumental rock garden, boys had to learn to work together to complete specific responsibilities like cleaning the area, digging the holes, and mixing the cement.

ongoing collaboration by the boys. As new youth enter the program, they typically add their own personal "handprints" to the garden. All of the boys who pass through the doors of the Youth Ranch-Bradenton/Sarasota contribute ideas, suggestions, time and effort into improving, as well as expanding the campus garden.

"I couldn't have done this without the boys," says Pop Jenkins. "They should be proud of what they've accomplished."

The unique project has even paved the way for other smaller versions. Many of the boys have taken the initiative and started working on another rock garden only a dozen feet from the first. "We wanted to build our own garden," says newcomer Bill. "It really gives us the chance to do something together . . . something that makes us feel like a family."

Undoubtedly, by participating in such an ambitious project, troubled boys build self-esteem, understand the value of work, and form strong relationships with their cottage parents. Today, the rock gardens stand as a monument to the dedication, diligence and sacrifice by all of the Youth Ranch boys. It will serve as inspiration for all the boys to come.

"Working on the rock garden has taught me you can accomplish what you want in life," says Israel. "It makes me feel I can achieve things I thought weren't possible."

A Message from Youth Ranches Vice President Financial Development

William W. Yarick

What does every home have that is a subject of conversation? Well, among the most common items you could mention, most likely books and photographs would be included. A typical collection of books usually covers a broad range of subjects. Some books require serious examination while others are intended for pleasure or leisure.

I like Bill Bennett books. Usually, they are edited compilations of what others have said or written, with added comments and interpretations by Mr. Bennett. I found, Our Sacred Honor, both inspirational and educational. Woven throughout the book are some common principles that have shaped America -- patriotism, civility, justice, industry, frugality, education, and charity.

Few people in our nation's early history had the drive for charity as Benjamin Franklin. Bennett says, "Franklin was involved in founding the first hospital in America and many other charitable projects in

Philadelphia that relieved the suffering of the poor and the sick."

For over 200 years, citizens of our great nation have followed Franklin's example. In October, a special philanthropy stamp was issued commemorating "Giving and Sharing . . . An American Tradition." More recently, National Philanthropy Day on November 17, recognized the good works of donors and volunteers throughout the country. Don Hawkins, a great friend to the Youth Ranches was honored as Philanthropist of the Year by the Suncoast Chapter of the National Society of Fund-Raising Executives.

As we come to this time of the year, we have so much to be thankful for, not only because of the country we live in, but for the individual freedom each of us enjoy.

The Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches is especially blessed to have so many friends who have learned and enjoy an American tradition -- giving and sharing.

From all the boys and girls of the Youth Ranches, thank you and happy holidays!

William W. Yarick

through their participation, and ultimate completion, of such unique summer challenges.

Crafting Needy Youth Into Law-Abiding Citizens Takes Art

Helping disadvantaged boys and girls reach short-term goals increases self-esteem, builds self-confidence and boosts their opportunity to enjoy a successful, productive future. By providing simple, exciting activities like arts and crafts, youth learn to express themselves and develop their own sense of creativity. Making clay crafts, napkin rings, and paper ornaments for the Christmas tree inspire a child's imagination and oftentimes define childhood memories.

Maintaining a youngster's attention requires innovation and enthusiasm. Camp counselors are trained to establish specific guidelines and standards, but are also encouraged to allow children the freedom to paint, draw, color or construct scenes which mean the most to them. Participating in group art projects allows troubled boys and girls the opportunity to re-direct anger and sorrow, unlock new places trapped in their imagination, and experience the pleasures of creating their own personal pieces of art.

If It Ain't Broke . . .

Like the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches existing camping facilities and established programs, the mobile camping initiative follows a specific and proven activity schedule. It is segmented carefully into various recreational, environmental, and educational class periods throughout the day. The Challenge Course, environmental awareness discussions, initiative games, slip 'n slide, racial tolerance workshops, and arts and crafts are repeated daily. Special law enforcement demonstrations and field trips are also planned as healthy alternatives.

This well-designed, well-rounded set of varied activities provides the greatest encouragement and support for deserving youth. By using such a prescribed balance, the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches has learned the value even one week can play in the education and ultimate survival of a troubled child.

Youth Ranches President Harry K. Weaver presents a Youth Ranches pin to Duval County Sheriff Nat Glover for his faith in Project Harmony.

It Takes A Village . . .

It requires dedicated individuals and careful planning to help establish life-saving alternatives for disadvantaged boys and girls. Communities, concerned citizens, friends, family, donors, law enforcement officers and civic leaders often raise much-needed funds to help provide these valuable services to Florida's children.

These same caring individuals have also helped establish and expand the Project Harmony: "Takin' It To The Streets" program. By building strong partnerships between local Sheriff's Offices and community organizations like the YWCA, the Youth Ranches will continue to reach more needy children throughout the state each summer. Alachua, Bradford, Dade and Duval counties have already embraced the goals and activities of this unique, therapeutic camping experience. The Grand Mariner Foundation and Browning Ferris Industries have also helped sponsor separate sessions during the summer.

"It's (Takin' It To The Streets) a wonderful idea," says Duval County Sheriff Nat Glover. "By bringing their (Youth Ranches) unique camping activities to these children, they are creating self-confidence and winning attitudes in youngsters that would not otherwise have an opportunity to enjoy this type of summer camp."

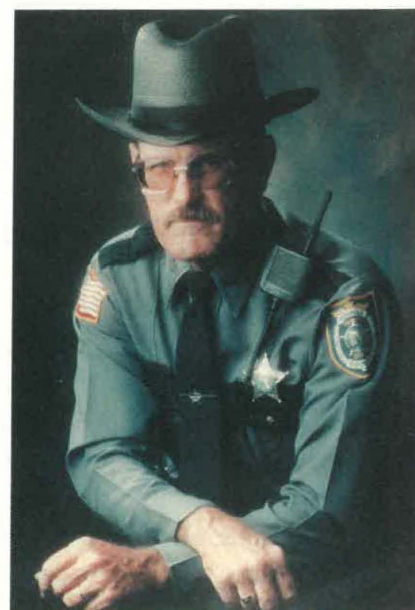

Preventative Medicine

Noticing the warning signs displayed by many at-risk youth is the first step toward prevention, education and intervention. The Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches is dedicated to preventing delinquent behavior by providing healthy alternatives, positive role models, strong ethical standards and esteem-building activities. Initiative programs like Project Harmony: "Takin' It To The Streets" are designed to reach troubled youngsters before dangerous decisions and actions become the only option.

Through new statewide initiatives, innovative ideas and proven programs, the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches continues its crusade. Perhaps, if we remain on the move, delinquency, neglect and insecurity will no longer know where to find helpless boys and girls.

Mrs. Linda Gregory (above, glasses), widow of slain Seminole County Deputy Eugene Gregory and her son Eugene Gregory, Jr. (above) attended this year's 41st Anniversary at the Boys Ranch Open House. Their family was honored at a special Donor Appreciation Dinner during the weekend activities.

Seminole County Deputy Eugene "Stetson" Gregory was fatally wounded by a gunman after responding to a routine call.

Real Heroes don't wear capes, but many wear the Sheriff's Star

Many of us forget, even take for granted, the unique nature and often dangerous duties our local law enforcement officers face. At any moment, on any call, no matter how routine the infraction or situation, every day, all across the country, officers risk their lives to serve and protect citizens like you and me, strangers, yet anonymous friends.

Unfortunately, confrontations can, and oftentimes do, end in violence, even bloodshed. Too often, one of our own Deputies loses their life in the line of duty. But, when tragedies like these rock local communities, it becomes our own duty and responsibility to honor the fallen, the real heroes.

On July 8, Seminole County Deputy Sheriff Eugene A. "Stetson" Gregory was killed by a gunman after responding to a routine call regarding a dispute between a Geneva man and his landlord. Law enforcement officers, friends and family members are still in shock, and continue to mourn as well as attempt to make sense of Gregory's untimely death.

As the life and legacy left by Deputy Gregory is recalled, one special time, one special place, stands out. Several years earlier, Seminole County Sheriff Don Eslinger supported Deputy Gregory's request to attend the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches Summer Camp. He served in this assignment as he had in all others, faithfully working to affect a positive change in the lives of deserving boys and girls.

After returning from Summer Camp, where the theme taught is, "Law Officers Are Your Friends," Deputy Gregory wrote this note to the Sheriff:

Dear Sheriff Eslinger,

"I wanted to thank you for giving me the opportunity to attend the Summer Youth Camp in Barberville. It was quite an experience. One I will not forget. The boys attending this camp are in need of role models, someone to spend quality time with them. A week at camp offers them a small taste of this. Hopefully, it is enough for them to consider alternatives to the path they are travelling down. Thank you again for the chance you gave me to be there for them."

Because of the impact this experience had on Deputy Gregory, his wife and family asked all memorial gifts be given to the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. Additionally, a special "Memorial Benefit Ride and Barbecue" was arranged to pay tribute to Gregory's memory as well as his many accomplishments. The caravan stretched from Casselberry to Fort Mellon Park, where it ended with a barbecue and dedication ceremony. The event was sponsored by the Nam Knights Motorcycle Club, Bikers Offering Options to Bikers, and the Seminole County Sheriff's Office. It raised over $3,000 for the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches boys and girls toward the prevention of juvenile delinquency and neglect.

What Makes Christmas Mean The Most . . .

What does Christmas really mean, to the spirit and the soul?
What can we learn from a child in need,
how do you console?

A child may wish upon a star,
or hope with an open heart.
For warmth and love and friends around,
who can offer a fresh new start.

Presents, trees and winking lights are always sweet to see.
But, mom and dad, and Uncle "John"
mean more to you and me.

Santa Claus and mistletoe will make each season bright.
In hope, their faith will last forever
each day and every night.

But, what makes Christmas mean the most,
are friends and family still.
'Cause, when lights are out and Christmas has ended, their love, it never will.

❖ GENERATIONS ❖

It is the pursuit of justice that drives them into a lifelong commitment to law enforcement. Whatever their bureau, district, or precinct; whether they are Sheriff's Deputies, Police Officers, or State Troopers, the men and women of our law enforcement communities are dedicated to serve and protect all of us.

But, it takes special individuals to realize the growing need for prevention, to seize the opportunity to stop crime and delinquency before it starts. It takes foresight and bravery to want to intervene, and implement daring initiative programs that challenge traditional thought as well as public opinion. Luckily, for the sake and citizens of Florida, daring law enforcement ambassadors had the courage to grow.

For decades, Florida's Pinellas County has been home to a special team of men - four men - four Sheriffs from different generations, with different leadership styles, but with Sheriff Don Genung (seated, right) became a Clearwater police officer in 1946 and later joined the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office in 1953. Sheriff Genung enjoyed the longest term as Pinellas County Sheriff, serving 17 years, from 1958 to 1975.

Sheriff Bill Roberts (seated, left) began his law enforcement career with the Largo Police Department in 1950. He also joined the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office in 1953, and served as Sheriff of the county from 1975 to 1980.

Sheriff Gerry Coleman (standing, right) first joined the former Pinellas County Patrol in 1959 before becoming a Pinellas County Deputy Sheriff under Don Genung in 1960. He was elected Sheriff in 1980 and went on to serve two terms.

Sheriff Everett Rice (standing, left) was hired as a deputy Sheriff by Don Genung in 1967 and was elected Sheriff himself in 1988. He is presently in his third term.

similar goals. Sheriffs like Don Genung, Bill Roberts, Gerry Coleman and Everett Rice have supported and even inspired the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches, and its mission to prevent juvenile delinquency and develop lawful, productive citizens through a broad range of family-centered services.

In fact, it was Sheriff Don Genung, along with Youth Ranches President Harry K. Weaver, who originally helped establish the Youth Ranch/Safety Harbor, located in Pinellas County. The inspiration for this unique residential program site was its desire to reunite broken families, allowing brothers and sisters the opportunity to remain together. Today, thanks to those four Sheriffs and the positive nature of the program, hundreds of lost children have found a home, and had the ability to work through problems with siblings by their side.

"Quite often, through the constraints of the system, many children had to be separated, and placed in different homes," remembers Sheriff Don Genung. "There was a desperate need to keep these brothers and sisters together."

But, the idea of a co-ed, residential campus was simply the unwatered seed of hope until D.A. Salls, a resident of Clearwater, volunteered to donate a cow to the Boys Ranch. As Youth Fund President Harry K. Weaver and former Pinellas County Sheriff Don Genung visited with Mr. and Mrs. Salls over the months, one cow became three, and the skies soon opened. Sprinkle to drizzle to downpour, the seed was drowning in generosity. It was apparent the Salls were interested in supporting the Ranches vital work with neglected children and broken families.

After the Salls' entire herd of cattle found a new home at the Boys Ranch, talks continued, and it was discovered that their house was "too big" for just the two of them. In 1976, that seed of hope had sprouted into a beanstalk of opportunity when the Salls agreed to donate their house and its property to help begin a co-ed program that would reunite brothers and sisters.

"We are committed to the Youth Ranches and its service to Florida's children," says Sheriff Everett Rice. "Pinellas County will always help needy boys and girls throughout the state."

DeLand Lodge #1126 donated $4,000 to the Youth Ranches boys and girls. (L-R) State President Ed Fischer, Administrator Don Robinson, Governor Chuck Wert and Youth Ranches Representative Tom Murphy.

New Smyrna Beach Lodge #1835 donated $4,064 to the Youth Ranches boys and girls. (L-R) State President Ed Fischer, NSB Administrator Everett Goodwin, Governor Neil Kimberly and Youth Ranches Representative Tom Murphy.

Florida Bermuda Moose Association building on commitment to youth

The Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches thanks the Florida Bermuda Moose Association for their ongoing funding and support. For years, the Youth Ranches has relied on the generous support of the Florida Bermuda Moose Association, an organization comprised of local Moose Lodges throughout the state. Thanks to the dedication of so many individual members as well as the Moose collectively, hundreds of Florida's underprivileged children have received help.

These two photographs are only a sample of the many lodges who have worked diligently throughout the year to help support the Youth Ranches. In many cases, the women of the Moose have also been actively involved in these charitable efforts.

Polk County Sheriff Lawrence W. Crow, Jr. (center) has established an "Angel Tree" for the girls of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa. Each year, sheriff's office employees select a name from the tree. Once paired, volunteers are responsible for buying, wrapping and delivering the Rancher's wish list gift.

Guardian Angels

"What do you want for Christmas?" has taken on a whole new meaning at the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa. Each holiday season, Polk County Sheriff's Office employees draw names from an "Angel Tree," a Christmas fir filled with individual wishes. Once paired, volunteers are responsible for buying, wrapping and delivering the Rancher's wish list gift.

So, what happened when Lieutenant Becky Schreiber, a diehard Florida State Seminole fan, drew Alison's only Christmas wish – a Florida Gator jacket. "Well, I do love the 'Noles," says Lt. Schreiber. "But, I love what we're doing for the girls... I was honored and thrilled to help Alison's wish come true."

Team Loyalty. Polk County Lt. Becky Schreiber (left), a diehard Seminole fan, was thrilled with the opportunity to give Alison this Florida Gator jacket for Christmas.
