President's Perspective

A message from Roger O. Bouchard, Jr.
President of the Florida Sheriffs
Youth Ranches, Inc.

On the first Saturday of October, the year's first offering of cool, Fall weather moved through north Florida to refresh and invigorate the visitors to the Boys Ranch for the 43rd annual Open House and Horse Show. Over 3,000 guests and 1,000 horses came to compete and enjoy a fun, family weekend in this beautiful setting. Beginning with a golf tournament sponsored by the Sheriffs of north Florida and ending with a stirring, outdoor chapel service on Sunday, the weekend had something special to offer to each person who attended.

Boys Ranch Open House is a time to renew old friendships and start new ones. Many members of our donor family came to enjoy the activities and to renew their commitment to the mission of the Youth Ranches. Whether hearing the inspirational talk of one of our alumni who just received his Masters degree, watching the Riding Ranchers compete in the horsemanship events or talking with some of the youngsters at the barbeque on the banks of the Suwannee River our guests were able to see the results of their giving over the years.

One of my favorite parts of Open House is the opportunity to visit with our alumni as they come back for their annual reunion. These alumni bring their families back to the Boys Ranch and have a great time of fellowship and fun as they challenge the current Ranchers in a volleyball tournament (the Alumni won!) and catch up on the news at an alumni banquet on Saturday night. This year, we had alumni from all five decades that the Ranch has been in existence. Although many met each other for the first time, there is an instant bond of unity and brotherhood when they get together. Whether they were at the Ranch for one year or ten, they hold a special place in their hearts for the home and family that they experienced while a part of this majestic place.

As we move into the holiday season, I would like to express my heartfelt appreciation to all those in our donor family who make the Youth Ranches a possibility. Your encouragement and financial support has allowed the Sheriffs of Florida to offer a home and the guidance necessary for thousands of young people to live successful, productive and law-abiding lives.

Without you, there would be no Youth Ranches! Have a wonderful holiday season and God bless you for caring for the boys and girls of Florida.

Art Therapy

Nancy Griffith wishes she had more time with the girls. If she did, Griffith would make trips to Bartow to conduct art classes with our youngsters. But, in her spare time, she does what she can to help educate needy youth. A retired teacher, Griffith holds a Master's Degree in Art Therapy and has devoted her life to educating children. Thanks to her recent efforts, 18 girls and their chaperones were treated to an exciting and educational day in Winter Park.

Their adventure took them on a tour of the Charles Hosmer Morse Museum of American Art where Mrs. Griffith is President of the Board of Advisors, on a boat ride of Lake Osceola, and to the Mennello Museum of American Folk Art. The Morse Museum boasts a permanent collection of the works of Louis Tiffany, whereas, the Mennello Museum of American Folk Art, in contrast, contains pieces of work using wood, pebbles, feathers and beads. Many of the girls found themselves intrigued and inspired by the many works of art. Some of the girls expressed a sincere interest by the end of the day.

"I want to be an artist now," said one of the girls.

Mrs. Griffith was delighted with the response she received from the girls. But still, she wishes she could do more. "Perhaps when my term is up at the Morse Museum, I will have more time to help the girls," Griffith said.

In our hearts, and the hearts of our girls, you have done enough already. Thank you, Mrs. Griffith for your kindness and generosity.

We pick up the story amidst the pines of north Florida, nestled along the Suwannee River, at a ranch, carved from the rolling hillside and pine trees, for needy and neglected boys. It is home to nearly 80 youth now. But it all started with just an idea, a simple plan, and a seed of hope by a handful of Florida's caring Sheriffs, to help troubled and potentially delinquent boys.

In the mid-1950s, two veteran Sheriffs, Hillsborough County Sheriff R. Ed Blackburn, Jr., and Marion County Sheriff Don McLeod, arrived in Amarillo, Texas, to return a pair of teenaged armed-robbery suspects back to Florida. While the extensive paperwork for the extradition was finalized, the two Sheriffs were escorted on a tour of a nearby canyon by one of the local Texas Deputies.

Along the trail, the Texas lawman told them of a ranch for needy, neglected boys, established by former wrestler Cal Farley, converted into a home for hundreds of underprivileged and unwanted boys. Inspired by the Texans' success, and clearly influenced by the plight of their two adolescent prisoners, Blackburn and McLeod discussed the prospect of starting a similar ranch for the troubled, neglected youth of Florida.

Today, the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch is eight cottages strong and provides sanctuary to nearly 80 boys. From farm and woodlands, the Ranch has become a thriving community, home to a campus cafeteria, Learning Center, chapel, swimming pool, gym, firehouse, gas station, airfield, and even its own water tower. As the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches celebrates 43 years of successfully saving so many of Florida's hurting children, it is also an occasion to say "thank you" to those early visionaries and to the thousands of Florida citizens who have helped support this simple plan to save lives.

Over the past 43 years, through a statewide network of residential campuses, summer camp programs, and community-based counseling, the Youth Ranches has helped over 40,000 boys, girls, and their families get a fresh start. Always a special time to remember and reminisce, the anniversary weekend was highlighted by a traditional chicken pilau (per-low), an old-fashioned "Southern" barbecue enjoyed under the shade of oaks along the Suwannee River, and the annual horse show at the Clay Mavericks Arena. This year, Grand Marshal Robert L. "Bob" Crowder, Sheriff of Martin County, helped kick off the weekend of special events.

"Year after year, it gets bigger and bigger," said Sheriff Crowder. "I feel very lucky to have been a part of this year's celebration."

And, at 43, the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches shows no sign of aging and certainly no signs of slowing down. With over 3,000 people in attendance and over 1,000 horses registered in the horse show this year, the Boys Ranch Anniversary Celebration set records for the largest crowds ever. Thanks to everyone, including the Clay County, St. Johns County, Suwannee County and Bradford County Sheriff's Offices, for helping make this year's open house the best ever.

On Guard - The Suwannee County High School NJROTC present the colors at the Boys Ranch Grand Entry Parade.

Each year, volunteers from the Bradford, Clay, St. Johns and Suwannee County Sheriff's Offices provide security and support during Boys Ranch open house festivities.

(L-R) Columbia County Sheriff Frank Owens, Levy County Sheriff Ted Glass, Sarasota County Sheriff Geoffrey Monge, Leon County Sheriff Larry Campbell, Alachua County Sheriff Steve Oelrich, First Federal's Lee Lewis, Hamilton County Sheriff Harrell Reid, Bradford County Sheriff Bob Milner, Baker County Sheriff Joey Dobson, Suwannee County Sheriff Al Williams, and Youth Ranches President Roger Bouchard enjoy the 3rd Annual Boys Ranch Golf Tournament.

The newly-renovated counseling center will allow Boys Ranch therapists and counselors to gather in a central location to help assist troubled youngsters work through their problems and concerns.

Simply Brilliant - The Diamonds, shown here, provided live music during the weekend of festivities.

Since arriving at the Villa, Diane has enjoyed creative writing, caring for horses on campus, reading, playing tennis, and exploring her talent for drawing. "I love art," said Diane.

"I have learned to trust people; to put my family above everyone else; to put education first . . . that choices I make effect those around me, and, that life is not always fair, but that's O.K."

Gifted

During each holiday season, the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa gives the ultimate gift by helping youngsters discover the talents that make them unique.

"What would you like to be when you grow up?" This is something we ask all of our children at one time or another. Many of them will have answers, like doctors, teachers, astronauts, or police officers. Perhaps they choose these professions because their own father is a teacher, or their mother is a doctor, or because they have met someone in their community who has inspired them. But, some kids will not know, will not have an answer; some boys and girls don't think about the future. Sometimes, children are not given the chance to succeed or dream. They must simply survive.

The Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches helps youth like these find meaning in their young lives, and helps give youngsters the self-esteem they need to find their true talents, the gifts they were given, and the confidence to pursue their hopes with energy and passion.

Everyone is born with a set of particular talents, or gifts. Some may be musically inclined or good at writing stories, while others may be good with animals or have a head for numbers. No matter what the talent, boys and girls deserve an equal opportunity to accomplish their goals. But it takes love and guidance to help youth develop personal skills and interests. Without encouragement and training, many talents could go unrealized, many dreams unfulfilled. For three special girls, the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa has allowed them to discover their own passions and develop talents that will eventually define what they do and who they will become.

Diane

Diane was headed down the wrong path, toward a life of ongoing delinquency. Struggles with authority, lack of respect and growing problems within her community brought Diane to the Youth Villa. But, during her stay, Diane has had the chance to turn things around. She has had the opportunity to repair broken ties and find meaning in her life once again.

"I've learned a lot of useful things at the Youth Villa," said Diane, "but I have to say the best is being able to talk to my mom and not argue."

While at the Youth Villa, Heather has found the courage to change and to turn negative behavior into positive action.

Some youngsters find their "gifts" using tools, learning valuable skills in woodshop . . .

. . . while others discover that using their hands best suits them.

change her behavior; she would have to want to look inside herself and find the dynamic young woman waiting to come out. Thankfully, she has.

At a recent speech, Angel outlined everything she has learned so far. "I have learned to trust people; to put my family above everyone else; to put education first; that help can be a good thing; to trust people and put faith in God; that people can change; that choices I make effect those around me; and, that life is not always fair, but that's O.K."

Heather

Heather needed help. Luckily, she found it.

At the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa, Heather found a network of family and friends to support and guide her. She found teachers who encourage and cottage parents who offer respect and thoughtful advice; she found assistants who are there when she needs to talk and therapists who help her find the answers within herself. At the Villa, Heather has found the courage to change and to turn negative behavior into positive action.

While at the Villa, Heather has also discovered a talent for writing. She contributed a special poem, "Day Personified" to a compilation of Creative Art Formed by Many Minds. She reads a part of the poem aloud:

"A bright soldier comes by herself to watch over us. She stands for many hours to make sure no harm is done . . ."

Heather is hopeful; Heather is healing. She is heading toward a brighter future.

Since arriving at the Villa, Diane has enjoyed creative writing, caring for horses on campus, reading, playing tennis, and exploring her talent for drawing. "I love art," said Diane.

In fact, recently she won a Christmas card contest sponsored by the Youth Ranches when her drawing was selected as this year's cover art. The picture depicts a burning candle and reads, "I will keep a candle lit just for you." When asked why she chose these words, Diane said, "Although we are not together this holiday season, it is a special time, and this (Villa) is a special place. By lighting a candle, I wanted to let our friends know I am thinking about them and thankful for all that they have done for me."

Angel

Angel was no angel.

Like many teens who struggle as they grow up, Angel was beginning to rebel, hanging out with the wrong crowd, getting into trouble, and even experimenting with drugs. But, things could have turned out worse.

"I could have ended up dead without the Villa," said Angel.

At 15, Angel arrived at the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa, unsure, scared of change. And while the Youth Villa could teach her right from wrong, and her cottage parents could help provide her with the proper social skills to make it through life, Angel would have to be willing to Keys to Success - Musical talent is a gift many youngsters develop while growing up at the Youth Villa.

Typically, boys and girls arrive at the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches campuses because of behavioral problems and issues with self-esteem. But, they also bring with them potential and talent and dreams yet to be fulfilled. At places like the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa, young girls learn to grow and mature as part of a special family. At the holidays, underprivileged youth receive presents under the tree, but they also receive the greatest gift of all - hope.

A Message from Youth Ranches Vice President Financial Development

William W. Yarick

"The age of 100, attained by so few, always has held a mystical significance. Sixteenth-century Spanish explorer Juan Ponce de Leon searched the Florida Everglades for the mythical Island of Bimini and the Fountain of Youth in hopes of discovering the elixir of eternal life."

So begins Dale Perelman's intriguing book 100 Centenarians. He continues, "Who among us has not marveled at some senior citizen who excelled as a painter, actor, philosopher, businessperson or just a golfer still capable of shooting his age? How unique it becomes when that person has attained the age of 100."

It is estimated some 70,000 centenarians live in the United States. As the trend toward longer life continues, it is conceivable some of the Ranchers featured in this issue may reach the mark!

Regardless of their ultimate longevity, the youth helped by the Youth Ranches will have a better chance to become lawful, productive citizens. Their adulthood will be enhanced and they will be better prepared to be positive role models for the next generation.

As you consider your year-end giving, we hope you will consider the advantages of gifting appreciated securities or other appreciated property, such as a vacation home, acreage or farm.

Giving long-term appreciated stock offers you a two fold tax saving. First, you avoid paying any capital gains tax on the increase in value of your stock. In addition, you receive a tax deduction for the full fair market value of the stock on the date of the gift. For income tax purposes the value of such gifts may be deducted up to 30% of adjusted gross income, with an additional five year carry forward.

A charitable gift of real estate can be especially tax advantageous. The property may have so appreciated in value over the years that its sale would result in a sizeable capital gains tax. If given outright to the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches instead, you avoid the tax and, at the same time, realize a charitable deduction for the full fair market value of the real estate.

Please contact our office if you have any questions or want to discuss your personal situation.

As we near the holidays, we are reminded how blessed the Youth Ranches is to have so many faithful friends and supporters. Someone has said "Kindness and generosity...form the true morality of human actions."

Thank you for caring and sharing!

Wm.W. Yarick

In their youth, Ruthe and Evelyn played basketball together. Today, they have been immortalized together.

The Ivans, Ruthe and husband Steve, have been friends of the Youth Ranches since 1967 and active supporters of the Youth Camp since 1985. Their generous gifts through the years have helped provide renovations to the camp's Arts and Crafts building as well as construction of the Frederick Allen Kullman, Sr. Fishing Dock. Ruthe passed away in 1999 but Steve's continued support has now provided the Youth Camp with a brand new basketball court; a place where other sisters can come together to make everlasting memories.

"Ruthe would be very proud of all this," said Mr. Ivan. "She loved to help the children."

Birthday Surprise for the Kids!

First, he surprised her; then she returned the favor!

To help celebrate his wife's birthday, Alachua County Sheriff Steve Oelrich planned a surprise party. But instead of bringing a gift for her, he asked guests to bring along a gift for a girl at the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa. The party was a tremendous success and dozens of gifts made the girls smile!

So, it was no surprise when Mrs. Oelrich returned the favor in celebration of the Sheriff's 55th birthday. This time, over 80 gifts were brought for the boys at the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch. You can imagine the excited faces as a pick up truck full of presents drove up. "What's going on?" asked one boy. "Wow! Is somebody special having a birthday?" another inquired. The reply was swift, "Sheriff Oelrich thinks each of you is special, so he wanted to share his birthday presents with you." Each boy heard his name called and received a package just for him.

Later, three of the boys traveled to visit with the Sheriff and thank him personally for their special gifts. They presented him with a signed poster from the guys showing pictures of that memorable day.

Made to Order

After a childhood faced with divorce and instability, Stacey Freihoffer needed structure and discipline. At the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa, she found guidance and order. Today, as an honorable member of the United States Air Force, she's learned to "Aim High."

It was a family tradition.

Like her father, Stacey joined the military after high school, enlisting in the United States Air Force. In only four short years, she has risen up the ranks quickly to Senior Airmen. In January, Stacey will be eligible to apply for status as a Staff Sergeant.

"I don't know where I would be right now without the Villa," said Stacey. "I just know I wouldn't be where I am today."

As an Information Management Journeyman in the United States Air Force, Youth Villa Alumna Stacey Rolen (Freihoffer) helps provide military personnel with the necessary information it takes for them to do their jobs and maintain national security. She provides answers when officers need it. Not long ago, it was Stacey who was looking for answers.

"I needed a place to get my priorities straight," said Stacey.

As a teen, Stacey began mixing with the wrong crowd and skipping school. Her grades were slipping; she was failing, in school and in life. Stacey had become disrespectful and rebellious, especially with her family. At the Florida Sheriffs Youth Villa, Stacey would have the opportunity to learn self-respect, build her self-esteem and find the motivation to raise her grades, renew her education and earn a second chance at life.

"I learned there were consequences for my actions," said Stacey. "I learned, with people's help, I could begin to solve my own problems."

Youth Villa Alumna Stacey Freihoffer became Stacey Rolen after she met and married her husband Corey in the Air Force.

An Air Force Lieutenant Colonel congratulates Stacey on a job well done.

Some of the most important lessons Stacey learned were thanks in part to the kindness of newfound friends and the advice of faithful cottage parents. Through their constant love and support youth like Stacey are able to put aside negativity and embrace the future; youth like Stacey find the courage to stand up for themselves and reach for their dreams.

"I really realized how to become an adult thanks to the Villa and my cottage parents," Stacey remembered. "Everyone always made me feel at home . . . without them, I would not have been able to establish such a strong bond to my family and friends."

Succeeding as a brand new adult thanks to the Youth Villa, Stacey has also become a brand new wife, and now, a brand new mother. Her daughter, Alexa, will turn two in the coming months. Because of the special sacrifices and support Stacey experienced at the Youth Villa, she has been given the proper tools to effectively raise her own daughter. Stacey plans on sharing the nurturing and guidance she received at the Villa. Stacey is committed to teaching Alexa the value of respect early.

"I will always be there for my daughter," said Stacey.

Being in the military certainly has its advantages. Stacey enjoyed her official military wedding, complete with an Honor Guard and the traditional canopy of swords. And recently, she received orders to report to the Pentagon to provide computer support for various national security procedures. But one of Stacey's dreams still remains unfulfilled. "I want to be a film director," she said.

In the Air Force there are opportunities in the field by becoming a member of the Battle Cams, a crew enlisted to photograph during wars or conflicts. Of course, there are always those impressive Air Force commercials to direct. The ones that urge you to "Aim High." Something Stacey has certainly gone on to do.

"My favorite director is Steven Spielberg," said Stacey. "I want to do what he does . . . I like to be behind the scenes."

Even today, Stacey still contacts old cottage parents and talks to old friends from the Villa. Living with girls who had similar problems and fears helped Stacey develop and mature. For years, they were her extended family. For Stacey, they have become lifelong relationships.

"The Youth Ranches does so much for kids," said Stacey. "They do everything they can to help you grow. If I knew someone who needed help like I did, I'd tell them to go to the Youth Ranches . . . for me, the Youth Villa was made to order."

Experiencing genuine fellowship during a delicious lunch, Rancher John entertains Senator Mitchell and others with a true story about cottage life.

A Visit from the Senator

Recently, Senator Richard Mitchell took time from his busy schedule to visit with the boys and staff at the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch. He had expressed a sincere interest in our work to prevent juvenile delinquency and eagerly focused on the success of the program.

After lunch with the boys in Saunders Cottage, Senator Mitchell walked the youngsters back to class and toured the Learning Center. Growing up across the Suwannee River in Jasper, Senator Mitchell knew that the Boys Ranch was a neighborhood of caring people who want to help boys become productive law-abiding members of the community. But, he did not realize how much it had grown over the years.

Senator Mitchell was impressed and amazed at the size and scope of the services provided by the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. He acknowledged the generosity of so many Floridians who have helped this dream become a reality by contributing to this worthy cause.

Youth Ranches boys and girls lose a very good friend

First and foremost, J. P. Hall, Jr., was devoted to charitable work. Hall had a deep interest in helping others, those less fortunate, and especially hurting children. His helping hand and warm heart will be missed.

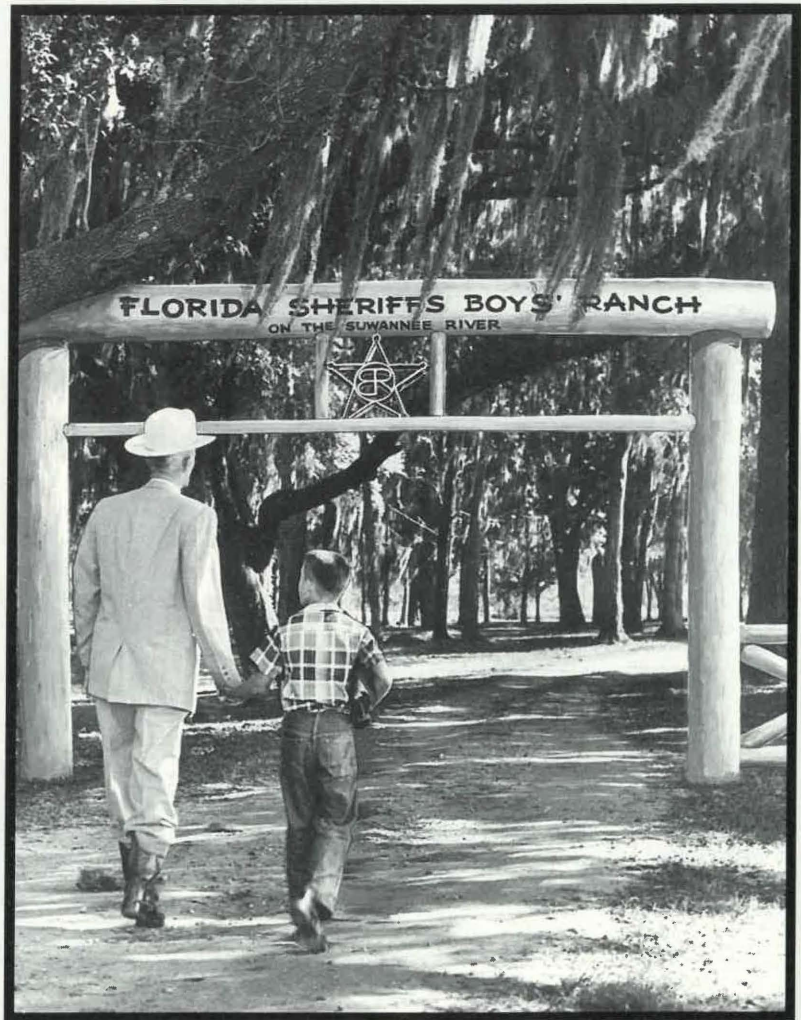

Hall spent most of his career as a businessman, but also worked in law enforcement, serving as a Deputy with the Clay County Sheriff's Office. His own father was Sheriff of the county for 36 years. Through this involvement, Hall discovered the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. It quickly became one of his favorite charities because of its devotion to helping children.

Hall, and his sister Dena Mae Lemen, were integral in producing the Youth Ranches 40th Anniversary Pictorial History Book. They helped get the book off the ground by covering the costs of printing through a substantial donation.

"J. P. was so well-respected and always there for our kids," said Youth Ranches President-Emeritus Harry K. Weaver. "He had a gift and enjoyed sharing it. His passing has left a void in all of us . . . his compassion and spirit will be sadly missed."

Make History!

“Mending Lives and Healing Hearts” is a pictorial book which spans the first 40-year history of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. The book is dedicated in loving memory of Clay County Sheriff John P. Hall, Sr., by his children Mr. John P. Hall, Jr., and Mrs. Dena Mae Lemen. Sheriff Hall served a record 36 years as Sheriff of Clay County. He was the first treasurer of the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch and an active supporter of the Youth Ranches during his entire lifetime. His children have chosen to further honor their father’s great citizenship and good works by underwriting the pictorial history of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches. Any income derived from the sale of the publication will be placed in the John P. Hall, Sr., Memorial Endowment Fund to benefit troubled boys and girls served by the Youth Ranches.

Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches

HONOR ROLL

Roster of Builders - This Honor Roll gives special recognition to generous supporters of the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches and its six child-care programs: the Florida Sheriffs Boys Ranch, Youth Villa, Youth Ranch/Safety Harbor, Youth Ranch-Bradenton/Sarasota, Youth Camp, and Caruth Camp. Those who give $250 or more in cash, or $500 or more in non-cash gifts, receive a Builder Certificate. Those who give $2,500 or more in cash, or $5,000 or more in non-cash gifts, receive Lifetime Honorary Membership in the Florida Sheriffs Association. A large wall plaque is awarded to each Lifetime Honorary Member, and gold stars are added when that person's total gifts reach $5,000 (one star); $10,000 (two stars); $15,000 (three stars); $20,000 (four stars); and $25,000 (five stars). For gifts of $50,000 or more, there is the Golden Star Award. Donors of $100,000 or more receive the Grand Star Award. We want our donors to know we have never permitted other organizations to use our lists of supporters, and we will continue to do everything possible to preserve their privacy.

A long-time supporter and friend of the Youth Ranches, Rossell is always looking for new and unique ways to help. But, living with a rather modest retirement income, sometimes it has been difficult for Rossell to find the means to help. That's why, when the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches Specialty License Plate was introduced, Rossell saw it as a fantastic opportunity to step to the plate for so many of Florida's at-risk youth. In fact, Mr. Rossell liked the idea so much he repeated his purchase again, and then, again. Over the past year, Mr. Rossell has equipped his personal vehicles with three separate Youth Ranches tags. Health problems have slowed him of late, but Rossell vows to keep fighting for boys and girls across the state in any way he can.

"I'm very proud of my license plates," said Rossell.

The Youth Ranches thanks Mr. Rossell for his generosity and genuine concern for children.

For more specific cost details or more information on how you, too, can step to the plate for Florida's youth, please contact your local Tax Collector or Tag Office.

Third Time's a Charm

Long-time Youth Ranches donor steps to the plate for Florida's needy youth.

Albert Rossell knows what it's like to be a needy, neglected youth. For most of his childhood, Rossell endured living in countless orphanages and foster homes. However, it is because of these tough experiences that Rossell has dedicated his life to helping other underprivileged children find safety and success.

"I'm a big believer in the Youth Ranches work," said Rossell.

Put a star on your car

After two years, the Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches has sold over 4,000 of its statewide specialty license plates. A sincere and heartfelt "thank-you" goes out to the many thousands of you who have chosen to put a star on you car(s). For one special donors' license plate story, please turn inside to page 29.

The Florida Sheriffs Youth Ranches Specialty License Plate has become a fantastic way for each and every Florida citizen to help needy boys and girls. Many of the Youth Ranches' faithful supporters have already purchased their plates, but we are still short of our goal.

For more specific cost details or more information on how you, too, can step to the plate for Florida's youth, please contact your local Tax Collector or Tag Office. Remember, the additional specialty tag fee ($20) is considered a charitable contribution and completely tax deductible.
